A.C.T.'s Geary Theater | April 17 – May 12

“A gift to actors and a goody bag for its audience”

–The New York Times

“A masterpiece of creative compression that is at once arrestingly original and faithful to its source material”

–The Wall Street Journal

From acclaimed playwright Kate Hamill (2017 Playwright of the Year, Wall Street Journal) comes a rollicking new stage adaptation of William Makepeace Thackeray's classic 19th-century novel that pops with 21st-century spirit.

Ambitious Becky Sharp may not have been born with wealth or status, but she's determined to attain both—at any cost. Armed with fierce wit and calculating charm, Becky forges her own path through London's high society, dealing herself into a game she was never invited to play. Hamill conjures an inventive and lively period drama featuring one of literature's original “nasty women.”
