A few reasons we make more than one car.

No two people are the same. Everybody expects something different from their car or truck.

That's why Nissan® offers all kinds of different models with all kinds of different options.

But, as different as each may be, they all have one very important thing in common. Every Nissan is a pleasure to both own and drive, because at Nissan, we never forget why we build cars and trucks. Or, who we build them for.

NISSAN

Built for the Human Race.

2001 Lombard Street. (415) 929-1500 / 1892 Union Street, (415) 921-5555
A few reasons we make more than one car.

No two people are the same. Everybody expects something different from their car or truck.

That's why Nissan® offers all kinds of different models with all kinds of different options.

But, as different as each may be, they all have one very important thing in common. Every Nissan is a pleasure to both own and drive.

Because at Nissan, we never forget why we build cars and trucks. Or, who we build them for.

NISSAN

Built for the Human Race.
PERFORMING ARTS
The Theatre & Music Magazine for California & Texas
MAY 1988

10 BRINGING "LES MISERABLES" TO THE STAGE
by Sheridan Morley

27 THE PROGRAM

56 THE PRACTITIONERS
OLD GLOBE MEDIA REPRESENTATIVE
CHARLENE BALDRIDGE
by William E. Fertk

62 CALIFORNIA ARTS PREVIEW
by Jeffrey Hirsch

69 RESTAURANT GUIDE

If you think people might think you order Chivas to show off, maybe you're thinking too much.

What are you saving the Chivas for?
PERFORMING ARTS.
The Theatre & Music Magazine for California & Texas
MAY 1988

10 BRINGING "LES MISERABLES" TO THE STAGE
by Sheridan Morley

27 THE PROGRAM

56 THE PRACTITIONERS
OLD GLOBE MEDIA REPRESENTATIVE
CHARLENE BALDRIDGE
by William E. Ferk

62 CALIFORNIA ARTS PREVIEW
by Jeffrey Hirsch

69 RESTAURANT GUIDE

If you think people might think you order Chivas to show off, maybe you're thinking too much.

What are you saving the Chivas for?
AS YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS CONTINUE TO INCREASE, SO DO THE REWARDS.

To those whose achievements merit ever greater rewards, American Express offers an exceptional way to help you obtain them: The Gold Card.

With its extensive worldwide travel and financial privileges, the Gold Card is one of those rewards in itself. For more information or to apply, call 1-800-648-AMEX.
AS YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS CONTINUE TO INCREASE, SO DO THE REWARDS.

To those whose achievements merit ever greater rewards, American Express offers an exceptional way to help you obtain them: The Gold Card.

With its extensive worldwide travel and financial privileges, the Gold Card is one of those rewards in itself. For more information or to apply, call 1-800-648-AMEX.
Allyn Beth Landau, M.D.
PHYSICIAN/DERMATOLOGIST
SCIENTIFIC BEAUTY EXPERT
Allyn Beth Landau, M.D. helps her patients to achieve and maintain healthy, natural-looking skin.

ZYDERM® COLLAGEN
You can improve your appearance through Dr. Landau's skillful administration of collagen and achieve what makeup cannot, safely and without surgery. Dr. Landau administers the most Zyderm/Zyplast/Collagen in Northern California.

SKIN CARE FORMULATIONS
Moisturizers Lotion Sunlight SPF 15+, in-depth cleaners and advanced moisturizers to give you the tools for healthy, beautiful skin. Visit or call 458-5085-SKIN.

ACNE TREATMENT
Achieve clear skin and control breakouts. Synergistic Regimens. Face and body acne cleansing, exfoliation, interventions.

PIGMENTATION PROBLEMS/ REJUVENATION
Even out skin tones, restore youthful glow, improve the texture of your skin. Re-Binet®-A-Rejuvenation formulations, chemical skin peels.

CAPILLARY TREATMENTS
Red spots of face and legs may be safely eliminated. Preventive advice.

SKIN GROWTHS
Cosmetic Dermatologist can remove unwanted non-malignant growths such as moles, warts, skin tags of the face and body. Body check + treatment for skin cancer, changing moles, sun damage. Early diagnosis recommended.

Allyn Beth Landau, M.D.
(415) 781-2722  (415) 781-SKIN
260 Stanyan Street on Union Square
San Francisco, CA 94122
Service for Men & Women/Mon.-Sat. & Evening Appointments/HEALTH INSURANCE

Jeffrey Hirsch
Managing Editor
Herbert Glass
Senior Editor

Crystal A. Smith
Assistant Editor
Ellen Mulvaney
Advertising Coordinator

Edward Orth
Production Manager
Susan Beth Cohen
Compositor

Donna Adams
Director of Advertising

From: Giniarti
San Franciscan Advertising Manager
Ella Deitrich
Senior Editor
Loreta Taylor
Office Manager

Performing Arts Network, Inc.
2999 Overland Avenue, #202, Los Angeles, CA 90064
(213) 634-4000
Reginald O'Brien

19 West 12th Street, New York, NY 10011
(212) 242-2940

Performing Arts Plaza, 601 Van Ness Avenue, 25052
San Francisco, CA 94109
(415) 677-3300

512 Pennsylvania Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101
(415) 297-9430

2470 Balboa, #250, Houston, TX 77054
(713) 524-3883

Downtown Media Reps.

157 W. Randolph Mill Road, #400, Arlington, TX 76011
(817) 267-5306

Regional Representations:

Wardens, Ketcham & Opytel, Inc.

2 North Riverside Plaza, Chicago, IL 60606

(312) 226-2799

Peter C. Kelly Inc. (Detroit)

725 South Adams Road, Birmingham, MI 48011
(313) 642-1228

Gillian Kraft
President
Joseph Benjamin
Senior Vice President/Editor

Judy M. Elias
Managing Director
A. J. Landau
Senior Vice President

For those who appreciate luxury and performance.
No matter how little it costs.

For those with a passion for driving and a taste for luxury, Mitsubishi offers the Sigma: Inside, you'll find a wealth of standard features, including automatic climate control, power windows and door locks, even a theft deterrent system. But beyond the number of features, it's the build quality that seems to impress.

Here's what Ken Gross, contributing writer of Automotive Magazine says about Sigma: "...it's the extremely comprehensive electronics that set this sport sedan apart..." He goes on to say that its "technical space is anything the Germans would do in the class and more for a lot less money."

To see just how much Sigma offers, we present the comparative chart. When you see how much you get, you think your choice becomes obvious.

Mitsubishi.
Suddenly, the obvious choice."
Allyn Beth Landau, M.D.
PHYSICIAN/DERMATOLOGIST
SCIENTIFIC BEAUTY EXPERT
Allyn Beth Landau, M.D. helps her patients to achieve and maintain healthy, natural-looking skin.

ZYDERM® COLLAGEN
You can improve your appearance through Dr. Landau's skillful administration of collagen and achieve what make-up cannot, safely and without surgery. Dr. Landau administers the most Zyderm/Zyplast/Collagen in Northern California.

SKIN CARE FORMULATIONS
Moisturizing Lotion Sunblock SPF 15+, special cleansers and advanced toners to give you the tools for healthy beautiful skin. Mail or telephone 458-5806-SKIN.

ACNE TREATMENT
Achieve clear skin and control break-outs. Synergistic Regimens. Face and body acne cleansing, exfoliation, treatments.

PIGMENTATION PROBLEMS/ REJUVENATION
Even out skin tones, restore youthful glow, improve the texture of your skin. Retin-A/Rejuvenation formulations, chemical skin peels.

CAPILLARY TREATMENTS
Red spots of face and legs may be safely eliminated. Preventive advice.

SKIN GROWTHS
Cosmetic Dermatologist can remove warts, non-cancerous growths such as moles, warts, skirtings of the face and body. Bodycheck + treatment for skin cancer, changing moles, sun damage. Early diagnosis recommended.

Allyn Beth Landau, M.D.
(415) 781-2122
(415) 781-SKIN
260 Stuckey Street on Union Square
San Francisco, CA 94108
Service for Men & Women/Men Sat.
& Evening Appt./HEALTH INSURANCE

For those who appreciate luxury and performance.
No matter how little it costs.

For those with a passion for driving and a taste for luxury, Mitsubishi offers the Sigma: inside, you'll find a wealth of standard features, including automatic climate control, power windows and door locks, even a theft deterrent system. But beyond the number of features, it's the built-in value that seems to impress.

Hears what Ken Gross, contributing writer of "Automobile Magazine" says about Sigma... "It's the extremely comprehensive electronics that set this sport sedan apart..." He goes on to say that its "technical space age anything the Germans would do in the class and more for a lot less money."

To see just how much Sigma offers, we present this comparative chart. When you see how much you get, you think your choice becomes obvious.

Mitsubishi.
Suddenly, the obvious choice.™
Bringing "Les Misérables" to the Stage
by Sheridan Morley

"Once in every decade a musical soars out at you across the orchestra pit as the eyes as well as the ears. Les Misérables, is one such, a great, blazing pageant of life and death at the barricades of political and social revolution."

It was in a sports arena outside Paris almost a decade ago, early in 1980 to be precise, that two Frenchmen first put together a musical based on Victor Hugo's classic 1862 novel Les Misérables. Alain Boublil and Claude-Michel Schönberg (a distant relative of the great composer Arnold Schoenberg) devised, with Jean-Marc Natel, an epic staging but with considerable transfer problems. Those few non-Frenchmen who saw it tended to come back from Paris raving about the score, but uncertain whether its libretto would translate and equally uncertain whether a sports arena concept could be made to work in other countries or more traditional proscenium-arch surroundings.

One who thought it would work upon hearing the 1980 French recording, though without ever seeing the show.

PRODUCTION PHOTOS BY MICHAEL LE POER TRENCH
Bringing “Les Misérables” to the Stage
by Sheridan Morley

"Once in every decade a musical sweeps out at you across the orchestra pit to strike between the eyes as well as the ears. Les Misérables is one such: a great, blazing pageant of life and death at the barricades of political and social revolution."

IT was in a sports arena outside Paris almost a decade ago, early in 1980 to be precise, that two Frenchmen first put together a musical based on Victor Hugo's classic 1862 novel Les Misérables. Alain Boublil and Claude-Michel Schönberg (a distant relative of the great composer Arnold Schoenberg) devised, with Jean-Marc Natel, an epic staging but with considerable transfer problems. Those few non-Frenchmen who saw it tended to come back from Paris raving about the score, but uncertain whether its libretto would translate and equally uncertain whether a sports arena concept could be made to work in other countries or more traditional prosenium-arch surroundings.

One who thought it would work upon hearing the 1980 French recording, though without ever seeing the show,

PRODUCTION PHOTOS BY MICHAEL LE POER TRENCH
was the London impresario Cameron Mackintosh who, from Cats through the decade to Phantom of the Opera, has turned the British stage musical from a local event into a multinational industry and who will by the end of this year have presented Les Misérables not only in London, New York and Los Angeles, but also in Boston, Washington, Japan, Poland, Iceland, Hungary, Australia, Norway, Austria, Israel, Canada, Argentina, Bulgaria, Brazil, Chile, Denmark, Germany, Greece, Moscow, Peru, Spain, Sweden and Turkey in a series of local co-productions.

Ironically, it will then return to Paris, not in the original version, but in a translation from the English, as part of the 1899 bicentennial revolutionary celebrations.

So what happened to turn a Parisian sports arena idea into a global hit? First of all, of course, the translation: however good that French original, it had no hope of worldwide success in anything but English given the economics of the musical theatre and its dominance by London and New York.

And that was where Mackintosh, who by 1982 had acquired foreign rights and declared his determination to bring Les Misérables at least over the Channel to London, if not also over the Atlantic to New York, ran into the first of his problems. Translating France’s national poet and storyteller into English has never been easy, as any schoolchild facing French examination will tell you, and in the end Mackintosh got his translation from two very different writers, both of whom happened by chance to be extra-drama critics. James Fenton, who did the libretto for the acclaimed and controversial Jonathan Miller production of Rogetto for the English National Opera, did a primary translation of the book and lyrics (since the show is through-sung—that is, without spoken text—the book is effectively its lyrics) and that was then developed by Herbert Kretzmer, who had Frrresh. Naturally more delicious because you make it yourself with 1 1/2 oz. of Kahlúa to 4 oz. of fresh cream, or milk, over ice. Sensational, right? Our Treat. Be our guest to a free Kahlúa Recipe Book. We'll be happy to send you as many as you'd like.

Kahlúa, Dept. F, P.O. Box 230, Los Angeles, CA 90078-0230.
© 1985 Kahlúa® 53 Proof, Mushroom Wine & Spirits Inc., Los Angeles, CA
was the London impresario Cameron Mackintosh who, from Cats through the decade to Phantom of the Opera, has turned the British stage musical from a local event into a multinational industry and who will by the end of this year have presented Les Misérables not only in London, New York and Los Angeles, but also in Boston, Washington, Japan, Poland, Iceland, Hungary, Australia, Norway, Austria, Israel, Canada, Argentina, Bulgaria, Brazil, Chile, Denmark, Germany, Greece, Moscow, Peru, Spain, Sweden and Turkey in a series of local co-productions.

Ironically, it will then return to Paris, not in the original version, but in a translation from the English, as part of the 1989 bicentennial revolutionary celebrations.

So what happened to turn a Parisian sports arena idea into a global hit? First of all, of course, the translation: however good that French original, it had no hope of worldwide success in anything but English given the economics of the musical theatre and its dominance by London and New York. And that was where Mackintosh, who by 1982 had acquired foreign rights and declared his determination to bring Les Misérables at least over the Channel to London, if not also over the Atlantic to New York, ran into the first of his problems. Translating France's national poet and storyteller into English has never been easy, as any schoolchild facing French examination will tell you, and in the end Mackintosh got his translation from two very different writers, both of whom happened by chance to be ex-drama critics. James Fenton, who did the libretto for the acclaimed and controversial Jonathan Miller production of Rigoletto for the English National Opera, did a primary translation of the book and lyrics (since the show is through-sung—that is, without spoken text—the book is effectively its lyrics) and that was then developed by Herbert Kretzmer, who had written some London stage shows in the 1960s and, more significantly, done the English-language translations of all Charles Aznavour's cabaret hits.

Frrresh. Naturally more delicious because you make it yourself with 1 1/2 oz. of Kahlúa to 4 oz. of fresh cream, or milk, over ice. Sensational, right? Our Treat. Be our guest to a free Kahlúa Recipe Book. We'll be happy to send you as many as you'd like.

So Mackintosh now had an English-language version of Les Misérables, one which, thanks also to the continuing involvement of Boublil and Schönberg, ran about twice as long, at three hours, as the Parisian original. What Mackintosh still lacked, until 1985, was the framework for a London staging. Les Misérables was clearly not going to be another Cats or Starlight Express, that is, a show depending quite considerably on its choreography and scenic effects. It was, rather, an old-fashioned plot show, one which would require a classical level of acting and staging not usually associated with the chorus dancing of the traditional West End production.

What did Les Misérables most resemble in the recent English theatre? Certainly there had been no other great French musical of late, but there had been Trevor Nunn's version of Nicholas Nickleby for the Royal Shakespeare Company, co-directed as is Misérables by John Caird and also dealing with an immense social and urban pageant of love and loss, wealth and poverty told by a master Victorian storyteller, in that case Charles Dickens.

So Nunn and the RSC were the logical direction in which to turn for Les Misérables, and there Mackintosh ran into the next of his problems. Nunn said he would undertake Les Misérables, but not on the basis on which he had done Cats, which was simply to take a leave of absence from the RSC (of which he was then co-artistic director) and work on a freelance basis.

Instead, Nunn and Mackintosh decided that Les Misérables would need the full resources of a company like the RSC and that it should first be seen on their own home territory at the Barbican Centre in London before progressing, if it all went well, to the West End and Broadway. Mackintosh was still carrying a huge economic risk since he had to underwrite a large percentage of the RSC costs, but at least he was getting in return a ready-made company; many of whose members had long been working with Nunn and...
written some London stage shows in the 1960s and, more significantly, done the English-language translations of all Charles Aznavour’s cabaret hits.

So Mackintosh now had an English-language version of Les Misérables, one which, thanks also to the continuing involvement of Boublil and Schönberg, ran about twice as long, at three hours, as the Parisian original. What Mackintosh still lacked, until 1985, was the framework for a London staging. Les Misérables was clearly not going to be another Cats or Starlight Express, that is, a show depending quite considerably on its choreography and scenic effects. It was, rather, an old-fashioned plot show, one which would require a classical level of acting and staging not usually associated with the chorus dancing of the traditional West End production.

What did Les Misérables most resemble in the recent English theatre? Certainly there had been no other great French musical of late, but there had been Trevor Nunn’s version of Nicholas Nickleby for the Royal Shakespeare Company, co-directed (as is Les Misérables) by John Caird and also dealing with an immense social and urban pageant of love and loss, wealth and poverty told by a master Victorian storyteller, in that case Charles Dickens.

So Nunn and the RSC were the logical direction in which to turn for Les Misérables, and there Mackintosh ran into the next of his problems. Nunn said he would undertake Les Misérables, but not on the basis on which he had done Cats, which was simply to take a leave of absence from the RSC (of which he was then co-artistic director) and work on a freelance basis.

Instead, Nunn and Mackintosh decided that Les Misérables would need the full resources of a company like the RSC and that it should first be seen on their own home territory at the Barbican Centre in London before progressing, if all went well, to the West End and Broadway. Mackintosh was still carrying a huge economic risk since he had to underwrite a large percentage of the RSC costs, but at least he was getting in return a ready-made company; many of whose members had long been working with Nunn and... on large-scale Shakespearian and Dickensian projects. These projects, while admittedly non-musical, did prepare them for the epic sweep of the story of Jean Valjean, his relentless pursuit by Javert and his love for the dying Fantine and her daughter Cosette.

What they were not prepared for was a curiously petulant undercurrent of British journalism in which it was long suggested that the RSC ought not to be "stopping" to a musical, least of all one destined for a commercial afterlife in the West End and on Broadway.

As a result, the original first night at the Barbican in October 1985 was critically a rather muted affair, though it seemed to me that night we were in the presence of one of the greatest things that had ever happened in the musical theatre. Once in every decade or so, given average theatregoing luck, a musical soars out at you across the orchestra pit to strike between the eyes as well as the ears. Les Misérables is one such: a great, blazing pageant of life and death at the barricades of political and social revolution.

But apart from Victor victorious, what matters about Les Misérables is that, like Britten's Peter Grimes and Sondheim's Sweeney Todd and, for that matter, Verdi's Rigoletto, it sets out to redefine the limits of musical theatre. Like them it is through-sung, and like them it tackles universal themes of social and domestic happiness in terms of individual despair, but with a score that seems to consist of all the great marching songs that Edith Piaf never quite got around to singing. There is an energy and an operatic intensity here which exists in the work of no British composer of the present: that sense of a nation's history being channelled through trumpets and drums and guitars and violins and cellos.

These songs, ranging from the joyous "Master of the House" to the haunting "Empty Chairs at Empty Tables" by way of 20 or so others, all tell of love and war and death and restoration: patter songs, arias, duets and choruses of dazzling inventiveness and variety. For this is not the French Oliver!, nor even the musical Nicholas Nickleby, though it owes a certain debt to both. Rather, it is a brilliantly guided tour of the 1,200-page eternity that is Hugo's text, and there is no way that in three hours we could ask for more.

The Louis Vuitton craftsmen possess the secret of constantly renewing tradition while maintaining all of its qualities. They fashion trunks, hard-sided and soft-sided luggage, accessories and small leather goods that quickly become new companions for new journeys. The famous initials are the stamp of authenticity of these unique skills.

Louis Vuitton. Exclusive stores:
317 Sutter Street, San Francisco, CA 94108 (415) 391-6200
At L. Magnin, Union Square, San Francisco, CA 94108 (415) 562-2100
South Coast Plaza, 3333 Bristol Street, Costa Mesa, CA 92626 (714) 662-6097
And at Macy's Valley Fair, Santa Clara, CA 95050 (408) 248-3333 x 4159 on large-scale Shakespearian and Dickensian projects. These projects, while admittedly non-musical, did prepare them for the epic sweep of the story of Jean Val-jean, his relentless pursuit by Javert and his love for the dying Fantine and her daughter Cosette.

What they were not prepared for was a curiously petulant undercurrent of British journalism in which it was long suggested that the RSC ought not to be "showing" to a musical, least of all one destined for a commercial afterlife in the West End and on Broadway.

As a result, the original first night at the Barbican in October 1985 was critically a rather muted affair, though it seemed to me that night we were in the presence of one of the greatest things that had ever happened in the musical theatre. Once in every decade or so, given average theatregoing luck, a musical soars out at you across the orchestra pit to strike between the eyes as well as the ears. Les Misérables is one such: a great, blazing pageant of life and death at the barricades of political and social revolution.

But apart from Victor's victory, what matters about Les Misérables is that, like

Britten's Peter Grimes and Sondheim's
Sweeney Todd and, for that matter, Verdi's Rigoletto, it sets out to redefine the limits of musical theatre. Like them it is through-sung, and like them it tackles universal themes of social and domestic happiness in terms of individual despair, but with a score that seems to consist of all the great marching songs that Edith Piaf never quite got around to singing.
There is an energy and an operatic intensity here which exists in the work of no British composer of the present: that sense of a nation's history being channelled through trumpets and drums and guitars and violins and cellos.

These songs, ranging from the joyous
"Master of the House" to the haunting
"Empty Chairs at Empty Tables" by way of 20 or so others, all tell of love and war and death and restoration: patter songs, arias, duets and choruses of dazzling inventiveness and variety. For this is not the French Oliver!, nor even the musical Nicholas Nickleby, though it owes a certain debt to both. Rather, it is a brilliantly guided tour of the 1,200-page eternity that is Hugo's text, and there is no way that in three hours we could ask for more.

The Louis Vuitton craftsmanship spares the secret of constantly renewing tradition while maintaining all of its qualities. They fashion trunks, hard-sided and soft-sided luggage, accessories and small leather goods that quickly become new companions for new journeys. The famous initials are the stamp of authenticity of these unique skills.

Louis Vuitton. Exclusive stores:
317 Sutter Street, San Francisco, CA 94108 (415) 391-5200
At L. Magnin, Union Square, San Francisco, CA 94108 (415) 392-2100
South Coast Plaza, 3333 Bristol Street, Costa Mesa, CA 92626 (714) 662-6097
And at Macy's Valley Fair, Santa Clara, CA 95050 (408) 248-3333 x 4139

LOUIS VUITTON
MALLETS A PARIS

ANNEE FONDEE EN 1854
That now traditional Royal Shakespeare Company march down to the footlights is here, as is a Third Man chase through the sewers, and even an autumnal ending worthy of Cyrano de Bergerac. Indeed, there are also some lovable orphans faintly reminiscent of Annie. Sure, the result is episodic, fragmentary and sometimes evocative of other shows and other countries. But no musical exists in a vacuum. Just as John Napier's rich and rare setting is made up of old treasures

Victor Hugo

(chairs, tables, cartwheels, water barrels), so the whole production reflects what Nunn and Card have learned from Nickely and Côté and their Shakespearean epics. But Les Misérables does more than draw on its own theatrical and political origins. Like the best of Bernstein and Sondheim, it also pushes the barriers of music theatre forward so that it comes to exist in the most dangerous area of the footlights. Like their West Side Story it is not a show

MAY AT MACY'S

WE HAVE A GIFT FOR GIVING

'LET'S PICNIC!' IN THE CELLAR—May 2-14

Macy's celebrates Coolerage Week with a line-up of personal appearances by some of your favorite Marketplace vendors, cooking demonstrations and the giveaway of a gourmet picnic basket that serves 20!

Macy's Mom of the Year Contest

Jamie Hacoc, 14, of San Leandro, has been named the grand prize winner of this year's essay contest sponsored by Macy's in cooperation with Hyatt Hotels and Resorts and KFSK/YA-AM. Selected from over 11,000 entries, Jamie won a $500 Macy's shopping spree for her mom, Julie, and a luxurious weekend for four at the Hyatt including brunch or dinner. All entry fees benefit the March of Dimes of San Francisco.

LINGERIE SHOPPING EVENTS—May 5-7

Our new 6th floor lingerie department is your personal guide to perfect selection, proper fit and wonderful bonus offers for Mother's Day. Informal modeling and complimentary gift wrap May 5, 5:00-8:00 p.m., May 6, noon-6:00 p.m., and May 7, noon-5:00 p.m.

TERRI ROESE FABRIC DESIGNER—May 20, 21

She'll be in our 5th floor home furnishings department from 11:00 until 2:00 to demonstrate the intricate art and technique of fabric design and to introduce her hand-painted porcelain giftware.

MACY'S UNION SQUARE IS MORE THAN A STORE...
IT'S THE PLACE TO WRAP UP MOM'S GIFT SHOPPING

macys
That now traditional Royal Shakespeare Company march down to the footlights is here, as is a Third Man chase through the sewers, and even an autumnal ending worthy of Cyrano de Bergerac. Indeed, there are also some lovable orphans faintly reminiscent of Annie. Sure, the result is episodic, fragmentary and sometimes evocative of other shows and other countries. But no musical exists in a vacuum. Just as John Napier's rich and rare setting is made up of old treasures

Victor Hugo

(chairs, tables, cartwheels, water barrels), so the whole production reflects what Nunn and Card have learned from Nickely and Cuts and their Shakespearean epics.

But Les Misérables does more than draw on its own theatrical and political origins. Like the best of Bernstein and Sondheim, it also pushes the barriers of music theatre forward so that it comes to exist in the most dangerous area of the footlights. Like their West Side Story it is not a show about glamour or success. And yet, as the score surges through the theatre, you are aware time and again of how triumphantly the translation works, somewhere at the boundaries of Shakespeare and Brecht.
Colm Wilkinson and Patti LuPone were Jean Valjean and Fantine on opening night at London's Barbican Theatre in 1985.

Les Misérables is everything that the musical theatre ought to be doing. It relies on no choreographic gimmicks, no repetitive phrasing, no simplistic homilies. It is not even a star show, though there are marvelous parts for half a dozen character players.

Yet those original Barbican reviews were,
Colm Wilkinson and Patti LuPone were Jean Valjean and Fantine on opening night at London’s Barbican Theatre in 1985.

about glamour or success. And yet, as the score surges through the theatre, you are aware time and again of how triumphantly the translation works, somewhere at the boundaries of Shakespeare and Brecht.

Les Misérables is everything that the musical theatre ought to be doing. It relies on no choreographic gimmicks, no repetitive phrasing, no simplistic homilies. It is not even a star show, though there are marvelous parts for half a dozen character players.

Yet those original Barbican reviews were,
Car and Driver calls it one of the ten best cars in the world.

Road & Track calls it one of the ten best values in the world.

We simply call it Ford Taurus.

The experts have been saying a lot about the Ford Taurus. But then, there's a lot to be said for an automobile that offers world-class style and performance as well as world-renowned value.

It's driven Car and Driver magazine to name it one of the ten best cars in the world three years straight. It moved Road & Track to call it one of the ten best values in the world among cars sold in the U.S. (including the Honda Accord LXi, Mazda 626, and Nissan Maxima SE). And as Motor Trend simply put it: "We should all stand up and applaud."

People, like Road & Track, are impressed by its available V-6 power (in a choice of 3.0L or its new 3.8L engine) and its sophisticated 4-wheel independent suspension. So many people, in fact, that Taurus now outsells every single car the competition makes (based on '97 model year manufacturers' reported retail deliveries). Proof that its celebrated design has impressed more than just automotive editors.

And with Ford's continuing dedication to design leadership, we fully expect the success of the Taurus sedan and wagon to go on and on. And so, we imagine, with the experts' praise.

Ford Taurus.

Have you driven a Ford... lately?
Car and Driver calls it one of the ten best cars in the world.

Road & Track calls it one of the ten best values in the world.

We simply call it Ford Taurus.

The experts have been saying a lot about the Ford Taurus. But then, there's a lot to be said for an automobile that offers world-class style and performance as well as world-renowned value.

It's driven Car and Driver magazine to name it one of the ten best cars in the world three years straight. It moved Road & Track to call it one of the ten best values in the world among cars sold in the U.S. (including the Honda Accord LXi, Mazda 626, and Nissan Maxima SE). And as Motor Trend simply put it: “We should all stand up and applaud.”

People, like Road & Track, are impressed by its available V-6 power in a choice of 3.0L or its new 3.8L engine and its sophisticated 4-wheel independent suspension. So many people, in fact, that Taurus now outsells every single car the competition makes (based on '87 model year manufacturers’ reported retail deliveries). Proof that its celebrated design has impressed more than just automotive editors.

And with Ford's continuing dedication to design leadership, we fully expect the success of the Taurus sedan and wagon to go on and on. And so, we imagine, with the experts’ praise.

Ford Taurus.

Have you driven a Ford... lately?
as I've suggested, oddly muted. Even the good ones suggested that this was somehow a very French and historical/social epic, which is rather like complaining that
My Fair Lady is altogether too Shawian.
There were even initial doubts that Les
Miserables might not reach the West End,
let alone Broadway and the rest of the world. What turned the show around,
intriguingly enough, was word of mouth.

Though one or two of us, and all credit
here to very early London reviews in both
Time and Newsweek, had been shouting in print about what we saw as the greatness of Les Miserables (affectionately known by its various players as The Glums), what really mattered was that long queues
began winding around the Barbican soon after the first night, simply because word
had spread from the preview audiences of something huge and musical and very usual.

That the show now lives in so many worldwide locations is of course a considerable tribute to its original creators,
not least Victor Hugo who knew a thing
or two about how to tell great stories in a popular fashion to a large audience. In London alone the Royal Shakespeare Company and individual investors have already had their money back three and four times, and Les Mis was largely responsible for seeing (along with the subsequent success of another Les:
Liaisons Dangereuses the Stratford company through a couple of difficult seasons at home. Last year it scooped three Tonys
in New York, and international profits are thought to be hovering around the $10 million mark already. Last summer I saw it played with a cast of 200 Hungarians
at a spectacular open-air opera arena a couple of hours south of Budapest, and
there too it was forming day-long queues.

Not altogether bad for a show which one leading London critic originally reckoned altogether too "ponderous" ever
to leave the Barbican.

Sheridan Morley is the drama critic of Punch and the International Herald Tribune. The latest of his numerous books is a history of the British stage
musical titled Spread a Little Happiness, published in the U.S. by Thames & Hudson.

---

This bottled water did not make an ocean voyage just to quench thirst.

Its higher calling is to accompany a great Scotch Whisky.

Contrary to popular belief, most true connoissseurs of Scotch do not take their whisky neat.

In Scotland itself—land of purists—even their revered favourite, The Famous Grouse
Scotch Whisky, shares
the glass more often than not with a modest measure of water.

Aha! But what water! Strathmore Natural Scottish Mineral Water has both heritage and pedigree to complement The Famous Grouse...indeed to enhance its greatness.

Bottled at source close by famous Glamis Castle, this legendary water journeys cross land and sea...
to glory, Famous Grouse and there.
Please enjoy.

THE FAMOUS GROUSE®
Scotland sends its best.

Remember special occasions by sending a gift of The Famous Grouse anywhere in the continental U.S. where allowed by state law. Call toll free 1-800-CHEER UP The Famous Grouse®, Blended Scotch Whisky, 86 Proof. © 1988, Imported by Heublein, Inc., Hartford CT.
as I’ve suggested, oddly muted. Even the good ones suggested that this was somehow a very French and historical/social epic, which is rather like complaining that
My Fair Lady is altogether too Shawian.
There were even initial doubts that Les
Miserables might not reach the West End,
let alone Broadway and the rest of the world. What turned the show around,
intriguingly enough, was word of mouth.

Though one or two of us, and all credit to very early London reviews in both
Time and Newsweek, had been shouting in print about what we saw as the greatness
of Les Miserables (affectionately known by its various players as The Glums), what really mattered was that long queues
began winding around the Barbican soon
after the first night, simply because word
had spread from the preview audiences
of something huge and musical and very unusual.

That the show now lives in so many worldwide locations is of course a considerable tribute to its original creators,
not least Victor Hugo who knew a thing
or two about how to tell great stories in
a popular fashion to a large audience. In London alone the Royal Shakespeare
Company and individual investors have already had their money back three and four times, and Les Mis was largely responsible for seeing (along with the subsequent success of another Les:
Liaisons Dangereuses) the Stratford company through a couple of difficult seasons
at home. Last year it scooped three Tonys
in New York, and international profits are thought to be hovering around the $10
million mark already. Last summer I saw
it played with a cast of 200 Hungarians
at a spectacular open-air opera arena a couple of hours south of Budapest, and
there too it was forming day-long queues.

Not altogether bad for a show which
one leading London critic originally
reckoned altogether too “ponderous” ever
to leave the Barbican. □

Sheridan Morley is the drama critic of Punch and the International Herald Tribune. The latest of his numerous books is a history of the British stage
musical titled Spread A Little Happiness,
published in the U.S. by Thames & Hudson.

---

This bottled water did not make an ocean voyage just to quench thirst.

Its higher calling is to accompany a great Scotch Whisky.

Contrary to popular belief, most true connoisseurs of Scotch do not take their whisky neat.

In Scotland itself—land of purists—even their revered favourite, The Famous Grouse Scotch Whisky, shares
the glass more often than not with a modest
measure of water.

Aha! But what water? Strathmore Natural Scottish Mineral Water has both heritage and pedigree to complement The Famous Grouse...indeed to enhance its greatness.

Bottled at source close by famous Glamis Castle, this legendary
water journeys cross land and sea...
to glory, Famous Grouse and thee.

Please enjoy.

THE FAMOUS GROUSE®
Scotland sends its best.
For people who like to smoke...

BENSON & HEDGES because quality matters.

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Cigarette Smoke Contains Carbon Monoxide.

6 mg "tar": 0.6 mg nicotine as per cigarette, by FTC method.

AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

Edward Hastings
Artistic Director

John Sullivan
Managing Director

1987-88 REPERTORY SEASON

TRUSTEES OF THE
AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE FOUNDATION

Mrs. H. Harrison Sadler, President
Mr. Albert J. Moorman, Vice President
Mr. Phillip Schlein, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Mrs. Maurice Oppenheim, Secretary
Ms. Ruth Barton
Mr. Andrew Beckstoffer
Mr. Ramon C. Cortines
Mr. Orlando Diaz-Axuy
Mrs. Peter Donat
Mr. Edward Hastings
Mr. Lawrence Hecht
Mrs. Austin Hills
Mrs. Phillip Larson
Mr. Howard N. Nemerovski
Mr. Frank Othwell
Mr. Howard D. Palefsky
Mr. William Paterson
Mrs. James Ream
Mr. Anthony Schiavo
Mr. Don R. Stephens
Mr. John Sullivan

HONORARY TRUSTEES

In recognition of their vision and unflagging support.

Mr. Cyril Magnin
Mrs. Edith Markson

The American Conservatory Theatre was founded in 1965 by William Ball.

KING LEAR
by William Shakespeare
October 10 through December 5

A LIE OF THE MIND
by Sam Shepard
October 12 through December 12

A CHRISTMAS CAROL
by Charles Dickens
December 5 through December 26

THE FLOATING LIGHT BULB
by Woody Allen
December 29 through January 9

THE IMMIGRANT
by Mark Harelik
January 6 through February 13

DIAMOND LIL
by Mae West
January 27 through March 19

END OF THE WORLD WITH SYMPOSIUM TO FOLLOW
by Arthur Kopit
February 17 through April 12

GOLDEN BOY
by Clifford Odets
March 9 through May 13

FEATHERS
Variations on Aristophanes' THE BIRDS
by Stanley R. Greenberg
April 13 through May 28
For people who like to smoke...

BENSON & HEDGES
because quality matters.

SURGEON GENERAL’S WARNING: Cigarette Smoke Contains Carbon Monoxide.

KING LEAR
by William Shakespeare
October 10 through December 5

A LIE OF THE MIND
by Sam Shepard
October 12 through December 12

A CHRISTMAS CAROL
by Charles Dickens
December 5 through December 26

THE FLOATING LIGHT BULB
by Woody Allen
December 29 through January 9

THE IMMIGRANT
by Mark Harelik
January 6 through February 13

DIAMOND LIL
by Mae West
January 27 through March 19

END OF THE WORLD WITH SYMPOSIUM TO FOLLOW
by Arthur Kopit
February 17 through April 12

GOLDEN BOY
by Clifford Odets
March 9 through May 13

FEATHERS
Variations on Aristophanes’ THE BIRDS
by Stanley R. Greenberg
April 13 through May 28

Edward Hastings
Artistic Director

John Sullivan
Managing Director

1987-88 REPERTORY SEASON

TRUSTEES OF THE
AMERICAN CONSERVATORY
THEATRE FOUNDATION

Mrs. H. Harrison Sadler, President
Mr. Albert J. Moorman, Vice President
Mr. Philip Schlein, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Mrs. Maurice Oppenheimer, Secretary
Ms. Ruth Barton
Mr. Andrew Beckstoffer
Mr. Ramon C. Cortines
Mr. Orlando Diaz-Auxay
Mrs. Peter Donat
Mr. Edward Hastings
Mr. Lawrence Hecht
Mrs. Austin Hills
Mrs. Phillip Larson
Mr. Howard N. Nemerovski
Mr. Frank Ottwell
Mr. Howard D. Palefsky
Mr. William Paterson
Mrs. James Ream
Mr. Anthony Schiavo
Mr. Don R. Stephens
Mr. John Sullivan

HONORARY TRUSTEES
In recognition of their vision and unflagging support.
Mr. Cyril Magnin
Mrs. Edith Markson

The American Conservatory Theatre was founded in 1965 by William Ball.
To Our Loyal Audience

A.C.T. relies upon you — the theatregoers of San Francisco and the entire Bay Area. We need you, of course, to see and enjoy our productions, to witness our work, to follow our transformations and developments as a creative ensemble — but we also need your generosity.

To be specific, we need $325,000 more in donations from individual audience members by May 31 to meet our goal of $825,000 for Fiscal Year 1988.

Nobody else in the Theatre District requests this kind of commitment and generosity from its audience, but no other theatre in the city has the needs of A.C.T., or offers the same kind of programming. We are unique: America's largest acting ensemble, performing a season of new and classical plays in rotating repertory on a not-for-profit basis.

We serve our community, not investors seeking financial gain. We offer a wealth of community services, from educational programs for the young to special performances for the elderly. And we keep our ticket prices low; even at capacity, revenue from ticket sales can cover only 75% of our expenditures.

Like a symphony orchestra or a ballet, a true repertory company needs individual donors to survive and flourish as a major cultural institution. We need your help. Please give it.

Edward Hastings
John Sullivan
To Our Loyal Audience

A.C.T. relies upon you — the theatregoers of San Francisco and the entire Bay Area.

We need you, of course, to see and enjoy our productions, to witness our work, to follow our transformations and developments as a creative ensemble — but we also need your generosity.

To be specific, we need $325,000 more in donations from individual audience members by May 31 to meet our goal of $825,000 for Fiscal Year 1988.

Nobody else in the Theatre District requests this kind of commitment and generosity from its audience, but no other theatre in the city has the needs of A.C.T., or offers the same kind of programming. We are unique: America's largest acting ensemble, performing a season of new and classical plays in rotating repertory on a not-for-profit basis.

We serve our community, not investors seeking financial gain. We offer a wealth of community services, from educational programs for the young to special performances for the elderly. And we keep our ticket prices low; even at capacity, revenue from ticket sales can cover only 75% of our expenditures.

Like a symphony orchestra or a ballet, a true repertory company needs individual donors to survive and flourish as a major cultural institution.

We need your help. Please give it.

Edward Hastings
John Sullivan

Edward Hastings
John Sullivan
Michael W. Burnor
January 4, 1955-January 27, 1988

As the season moves towards closing night, the company and staff of A.C.T. would like to recall and salute a dear friend and colleague who was a part of the company for seventeen seasons — half his lifetime. Michael Burnor, whose final staff position was Operations Manager, passed away in January from complications surrounding Burkitt's lymphoma. He was 33.

Michael Burnor was born in Washington, D.C., but came to San Francisco as a boy. He was educated at Galileo High School and City College, and began work at the Geary Theatre as an usher in 1969, at the age of fourteen. A decade later he was House Manager, and in 1981 he was made A.C.T. Facilities Manager. In this position he was responsible for the day-to-day maintenance of all A.C.T. administrative offices and studios, as well as of the Geary Theatre, where he supervised the renovation of the Mezzanine lobby, the expansion of its bathroom facilities, and the restoration of the Geary Cellar — now known as Fred’s Columbia Room.

In 1985 Michael left to become Operations Manager of the San Francisco Ballet, but he returned two years later — just last September — as A.C.T.’s Operations Manager, charged with the task of coordinating the restorations of the Geary.

His primary concerns were the safety and comfort of the theatre’s patrons, but he was also dedicated to the preservation and refurbishment of the glories of this magnificent house. (If you wish to honor Michael’s memory by contributing to a fund to improve the facilities and appointments of the Geary, please send a check — payable to A.C.T. — to 450 Geary St., San Francisco 94102.)

Michael Burnor worked full-tilt at this demanding position until he discovered his illness, just days before his death. On February 21 his colleagues from seventeen seasons celebrated his life with an afternoon of songs and reminiscences in the theatre he cherished and tended so well: the Geary.

Take a bow, Mikie. And . . . Curtain.
Michael W. Burnor
January 4, 1955-January 27, 1988

As the season moves towards closing night, the company and staff of A.C.T. would like to recall and salute a dear friend and colleague who was a part of the company for seventeen seasons — half his lifetime. Michael Burnor, whose final staff position was Operations Manager, passed away in January from complications surrounding Burkitt’s lymphoma. He was 33.

Michael Burnor was born in Washington, D.C., but came to San Francisco as a baby. He was educated at Galileo High School and City College, and began work at the Geary Theatre as an usher in 1969, at the age of fourteen. A decade later he was House Manager, and in 1981 he was made A.C.T. Facilities Manager. In this position he was responsible for the day-to-day maintenance of all A.C.T. administrative offices and studios, as well as of the Geary Theatre, where he supervised the renovation of the Mezzanine lobby, the expansion of its bathroom facilities, and the restoration of the Geary Cellar — now known as Fred’s Columbia Room.

In 1985 Michael left to become Operations Manager of the San Francisco Ballet, but he returned two years later — just last September — as A.C.T.’s Operations Manager, charged with the task of coordinating the restorations of the Geary.

His primary concerns were the safety and comfort of the theatre’s patrons, but he was also dedicated to the preservation and refurbishment of the glory of this magnificent house. (If you wish to honor Michael’s memory by contributing to a fund to improve the facilities and appointments of the Geary, please send a check — payable to A.C.T. — to 450 Geary St., San Francisco 94102.)

Michael Burnor worked full-time at this demanding position until he discovered his illness, just days before his death. On February 21 his colleagues from seventeen seasons celebrated his life with an afternoon of songs and reminiscences in the theatre he cherished and tended so well: the Geary.

Take a bow, Mikie. And . . . Curtain.
WHO’S WHO AT A.C.T.

KATE BRICKLEY was educated at the University of Wisconsin, and completed her training at A.C.T. She has appeared with the company on the Geary stage in Faustus in Hell, Private Lives, Oh! Hell, Macbeth, Peer Gynt, Diamond Lil, and A Christmas Carol, and in studio productions of The Cherry Orchard, The School for Scandal, and Trelawny of the Wells. Miss Brickley has also appeared at the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Roméo and Juliet, Candide, and The Utter Glory of Morrissey Hall. Last summer she appeared in All Night Long with Encore Presentations. An instructor of acting and voice, she teaches in A.C.T.’s Young Conservatory, Academy, and Advanced Training Program.

RICHARD BUTTERFIELD played Edgar in King Lear and Captain Cummings in Diamond Lil earlier this season; last year, his first with A.C.T., he appeared as the Soldier in Sunday in the Park with George, Billy in The Real Thing, Young Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, and a drag queen (among other roles) in Faustus in Hell. Mr. Butterfield has worked with the San Jose Repertory Company, Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, Berkeley Jewish Theatre, and Theatrends of Palo Alto, where he performed in Sondheim’s Merrily We Roll Along. Among his other credits are Freddie in God (directed by Julian Lopez-Morillas), Navarre in Love’s Labour’s Lost, Francis Flute in A Midsummer Night’s Dream, and Catelyn in Richard III with Dakin Matthews. Mr. Butterfield holds a Stanford A.B. with Honors in international relations, and teaches in the Advanced Training Program and Young Conservatory.

Among the roles NANCY CARLIN has played in her three years with the company are Beth in A Lie of the Mind, Jennifer Dubedat in The Doctor’s Dilemma, and Masha in The Seagull. She has worked at numerous theatres on the west coast, including the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, the Eureka Theatre, the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts. At Shakespeare Santa Cruz last summer she played Beatrice in Much Ado About Nothing and April in Company. Miss Carlin received a B.A. in comparative literature from Brown University and is a graduate of A.C.T.’s Advanced Training Program.

A graduate of A.C.T.’s Advanced Training Program and a former member of Santa Maria’s P.C.P.A., PAUL COOLBRITH appeared in the Allen Fletcher productions of The Unsinkable Molly Brown (as Christmas Morgan), Idaho’s presenting

The American Coast Line.

We connect these dots up and down the West Coast nearly 600 times each day. From Vancouver all the way down to San Diego, and just about everywhere in between. American Airlines and American Eagle™ have nonstop service all over the West Coast. All around the clock. With almost 600 departures every business day to 19 American Airlines and 9 American Eagle destinations.

And all the special services you’ve come to expect from us. Like advance boarding passes, reserved seating, no-stop check-in and our Advantage™ travel awards program. So the next time you’re choosing an airline to connect these dots, there’s only one conclusion to draw.

American Airlines
Something special in the air.

WHO'S WHO AT A.C.T.

KATE BRICKLEY was educated at the University of Wisconsin, and completed her training at A.C.T. She has appeared with the company on the Geary stage in Fausset in Hell, Private Lives, Orchidea, Mackerel, Peer Gynt, Diamond Lil, and A Christmas Carol, and in studio productions of The Cherry Orchard, The School for Scandal, and Telemachus of the Wells. Miss Brickley has also appeared at the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Romeo and Juliet, Canidae, and The Utter Glory of Morrissey Hall. Last summer she appeared in All Night Long with Encore Presentations. An instructor of acting and voice, she teaches in A.C.T.'s Young Conservatory, Academy, and Advanced Training Program.

RICHARD BUTTERFIELD played Edgar in King Lear and Captain Cummings in Diamond Lil earlier this season; last year, his first with A.C.T., he appeared as the Soldier in Sunday in the Park with George, Billy in The Real Thing, Young Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, and a drag queen (among other roles) in Fausset in Hell. Mr. Butterfield has worked with the San Jose Repertory Company, Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, Berkeley Jewish Theatre, and Theatreworks of Palo Alto, where he performed in Sondheim's Merrily We Roll Along. Among his other credits are Freddie in Goof (directed by Julian Lopez-Morillas), Navarre in Love's Labour's Lost, Francis Flute in A Midsummer Night's Dream, and Catsby in Richard III with Dakin Matthews. Mr. Butterfield holds a Stanford A.B. with Honors in international relations, and teaches in the Advanced Training Program and Young Conservatory.

Among the roles NANCY CARLIN has played in her three years with the company are Beth in A Lie of the Mind, Jennifer Dubedat in The Doctor’s Dilemma, and Masha in The Sea Gull. She has worked at numerous theatres on the west coast, including the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, the Eureka Theatre, the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts. At Shakespeare Santa Cruz last summer she played Beatrice in Much Ado About Nothing and April in Company. Miss Carlin received a B.A. in comparative literature from Brown University and is a graduate of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program.

A graduate of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program and a former member of Santa Maria’s P.C.P.A., PAUL COOLBRITH appeared in the Allen Fletcher productions of The Unsinkable Molly Brown (as Christmas Morgan), Idiot's

Presenting The American Coast Line.

We connect these dots up and down the West Coast nearly 600 times each day. From Vancouver all the way down to San Diego. And just about everywhere in between. American Airlines and American Eagle have nonstop service all over the West Coast. All around the clock. With almost 600 departures every business day to 19 American Airlines and 9 American Eagle destinations.

And all the special services you've come to expect from us: like advance boarding passes, pre-reserved seating, no-stop check-in and our Advantage travel awards program. So the next time you're choosing an airline to connect these dots, there's only one conclusion to draw.

American Airlines

Something special is in the air.

American Eagle and Advantage are registered service marks of American Airlines, Inc. American Airlines destinations • American Eagle destinations.
Delight (as Quillery), and Macbeth (Ross), and in Donovan Marley's Billy Build (the Dansker). Among Mr. Coolbrith's recent credits in San Francisco are Atticus in Edward Hastings' production of To Kill a Mockingbird and Davies in John Wilk's The Caretaker.

BRIAN CRAWLEY, who holds a B.A. in English and theatre from Yale, is a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program. At A.C.T. he has played a waiter and a cop in Diamond Lil, Fred in A Christmas Carol, and a punk devil in Faustus in Hell; in student productions he played Troilus in The Cherry Orchard and the title roles in Richard III and Nicholas Nickleby. He was in Lile Kae in Dream at the Ark Theatre in New York, and since coming to San Francisco has played Billy in Casualties and Don Juan in Much Ado About Nothing at Theatreworks, danced as a witch in the San Francisco Opera's Macbeth, and appeared in Hans Christian Andersen and Kiss Me, Kate at PCPA TheatreFest.

DREW ESHELMAN made his debut with A.C.T. in The Ruling Class in 1975, and his work with the company since then has included King Lear, Diamond Lil, The Doctor's Dilemma, Sunday in the Park with George, Faustus in Hell, You Never Can Tell, Macbeth, A Christmas Carol, and A Midsummer Night's Dream. He has appeared in Hamlet at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival. The Taming of the Shrew at San Diego's Old Globe Theatre, and The Good Person of Szechuan at the Berkeley Repertory Theatre. He was in the original production and the Los Angeles revival of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, and has been prominently seen in San Francisco in Cloud Nine and Rent. Mr. Eselman has also played featured roles in a number of films, including The Right Stuff and Magnificent Force, and has appeared in several television series. He attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program in 1973-74.

ELAN EVANS, a native of Stockton, California, trained at the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts, where she appeared in The Suicide, Medea, and Ffynne. Miss Evans worked in various capacities at the Denver Center Theatre Company before returning to California to complete her acting training. Now in her third year of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, she appeared in End of the World... as Ann Trent. Her Bay Area debut was as Ursula in last summer's production of Much Ado About Nothing for the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival. Miss Evans received her B.F.A. at the College of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

GINA FERRALL is a graduate of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, and has appeared at the Geary in Diamond Lil, Cat Among the Pigeons, A Christmas Carol, I Remember Mama, The Admirable Crichton, and Sunday in the Park with George. In addition to playing Lizzy in the Plays-in-Progress production of Lizzie Borden in the Late Afternoon, Miss Ferrall was in Berkeley Rep's production of The Art of Dining and appeared as Violet in Center Space's production of Snow White. She has also appeared with the Santa Rosa Summer Repertory Theatre, at Montana's Shakespeare in the Parks, and as Emily in All Nighters at the New Arts Theatre in New York. She is co-owner of the Josef Kobe Co. of San Francisco.

SCOTT FREEMAN, who last appeared on the Geary stage as Young Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, has also performed with the company in Macbeth and The Sleeping Prince, and in a studio production of Strindberg's Creditors. He has appeared in Tartuffe and Hamlet at the Grove Shakespeare Festival, in Villainous Company at the One Act Theatre, and as Bernardo in Romeo and Juliet with the South Coast Repertory, and he acted in the film No Way Out. Mr. Freeman trained — and now teaches acting — in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program.

LAWRENCE HECHT is an A.C.T.'s Conservatory Director. In addition to staging such A.C.T. productions as The Dolly, Translations, and 'night, Mother, he has also served as actor, resident director, and Director of Actor Training for the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa Maria, where his directing credits include Harvey, Major Barbara, and Ben Hur. A graduate of the University of San Francisco and A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, Mr. Hecht has directed numerous productions for Plays-in-Progress. Now in his 16th season with A.C.T., he has performed in more than 25 productions, including The National Health, The Visit, Buried Child, Night and Day, The Three Sisters, Happy Landings, The Holdout, Sunday in the Park with George, and this season's End of the World... and A Lie of the Mind.

ED HODSON, who studied in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, has appeared on the Geary stage as Brodie in The Real Thing and Mike in A Life of the Mind. At the Eureka Theatre Company he has appeared in Landscape of the Body, Fren, and A Naxos Bed (which was written by his wife, Ellen McLaughlin), and his Festival in Canada. He was a member of Ellis Rabbit's APA Repertory Company, appeared on and off-Broadway (winning the Theatre World Award for Best Featured Actor of 1957), and came to A.C.T. in 1968. Here he has played in more than fifty productions, including King Lear, The Merchant of Venice, Haifirm VII, Comtes de Bergere, Equus, Man and Superman, Uncle Vanya, The Sleeping Prince, The School for Wives, Macbeth, and Our Town. Mr. Donath has appeared often on TV, including a starring role in the NBC series Flamingo Road. His films include The Hindenburg, The China Syndrome, The Bay Boys (with Liv Ullmann), and Francis Ford Coppola's upcoming release Tucker.

BRIAN CRAWLEY, who holds a B.A. in English and theatre from Yale, is a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program. At A.C.T. he has played a wailer and a cop in Diamond Lily; Fred in A Christmas Carol, and a punk devil in Faustus in Hell; in student productions he played Trotwood in The Cherry Orchard and the title roles in Richard III and Nicholas Nickleby. He was in Life Is a Dream at the Ark Theatre in New York, and since coming to San Francisco has played Billy in Casualties and Don Juan in Much Ado About Nothing at Theatreworks, danced as a witch in the San Francisco Opera's Macbeth, and appeared in Hans Christian Andersen and Kiss Me, Kate at P.C.P.A. TheatreFest.

DREW ESHELMAN made his debut with A.C.T. in The Ruling Class in 1975, and his work with the company since then has included King Lear, Diamond Lily, The Doctor's Dilemma, Sunday in the Park with George, Faustus in Hell, You Never Can Tell, Macbeth, A Christmas Carol, and A Midsummer Night's Dream. He has appeared in Hamlet at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, The Tempest and The Taming of the Shrew at San Diego's Old Globe Theatre, and The Good Person of Szechuan at the Berkeley Repertory Theatre. He was in the original production and the Los Angeles revival of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, and has been prominently seen in San Francisco in Cloud Nine and Rent. Mr. Eshelman has also played featured roles in a number of films, including The Right Stuff and Magnificent Force, and has appeared in several television series. He attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program in 1975-76.

ELAN EVANS, a native of Stockton, California, trained at the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts, where she appeared in The Suicide, Medea, and Firefly. Miss Evans worked in various capacities at the Denver Center Theatre Company before returning to California to complete her acting training. Now in her third year of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, she appeared in End of the World... as Ann Trent. Her Bay Area debut was as Ursula in last summer's production of Much Ado About Nothing for the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival. Miss Evans received her B.F.A. at the College of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

GINA FERRALL is a graduate of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, and has appeared at the Geary in Diamond Lily, Cat Among the Pigeons, A Christmas Carol, I Remember Mama, The Adirondack Cricket, and Sunday in the Park with George, in addition to playing Lizzy in the Plays-in-Progress production of Lizzie Borden in the Late Afternoon. Miss Ferrall was in Berkeley Rep's production of The Art of Dining and appeared as Violet in Center Space's production of Snow White Falling. She has also appeared with the Santa Rosa Summer Repertory Theatre at Montana's Shakespeare in the Parks, and as Emily in All Nighters at the New Arts Theatre in New York. She is co-owner of the Josef Kobe Co. of San Francisco.

SCOTT FREEMAN, who last appeared on the Geary stage as Young Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, has also performed with the company in Macbeth and The Sleeping Prince, and in a studio production of Strindberg's Cledston. He has appeared in Tartuffe and Hamlet at the Grove Shakespeare Festival, in Villainous Company at the One Act Theatre, and as Bernard in Romeo and Juliet with the South Coast Repertory, and he acted in the film No Way Out. Mr. Freeman trained — and now teaches acting — in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program.

LAWRENCE HECHT is A.C.T.'s Conservatory Director. In addition to staging such A.C.T. productions as The Dolly, Translations, and 'night, Mother, he has also served as actor, resident director, and Director of Actor Training for the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa Maria, where his directing credits include Harvey, Major Barbara, and Bus Stop. A graduate of the University of San Francisco and A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, Mr. Hecht has directed numerous productions for Plays-in-Progress. Now in his 10th season with A.C.T., he has performed in more than 25 productions, including The National Health, The Visit, Buried Child, Night and Day, The Three Sisters, Happy Landings, The Holdall, Sunday in the Park with George, and this season's End of the World... and A Lie of the Mind.

ED HODSON, who studied in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, has appeared on the Geary stage as Brodie in The Real Thing and Mike in A Life of the Mind. At the Arena Theatre Company he has appeared in Landscape of the Body, Fer, and A Narrow Bed (which was written ten by his wife, Ellen McLaughlin, and his work with Western Stage has included Hotel Paradiso. He has acted with the Vermont Ensemble Theatre in Blue Window, and with the 29th Street Project in New York in Hostel Witness, Jamie's Gang, and Dakota's Belly, Wyoming. He also appeared in New York in Under Distant Skies, Too, DEROS on the Funny Farm, and The Blue Dahlia. Mr. Hudson played Mozart in a national tour of Amadeus.

STEVEN ANTHONY JONES, who joined the A.C.T. company this season with King Lear and A Christmas Carol, has been performing for 25 years, five of those with the Negro Ensemble Company of New York, where he created the role of Pvt. James Wilkie in the original production of A Soldier's Play. He appeared locally in the Eureka Theatre productions of The Cherry Orchard, Every Moment, and The Island; the San Jose Repertory Theatre's Master Harold... and the Boys; and in Division Street at Oakland Ensemble Theatre. Mr. Jones has also worked in film and television.

This season BARRY KRAFT, a charter member of the company, alternated in the title role of King Lear — the second time he has appeared in an A.C.T. production of the play; he is a veteran of the 1965 production in Pittsburgh. Mr. Kraft has spent 21 of the last 22 summers acting in Shakespearean festivals around the country, and has appeared in 34 of Shakespeare's 38 plays. At the Oregon Shakespearean Festival he has played John of Gaunt in Richard II, Berowne in Love's Labor's Lost, Hotspur in Henry IV, Part I, Mark Antony ACT-2

In Julius Caesar, Lear of the Winter's Tale, and last summer — Bottom in A Midsummer Night's Dream and Hodge in Dekker's The Shaker's Holiday. His work has been seen at the Empty Space in Seattle and in the San Jose Repertory Company's productions of Cyrano de Bergerac (as Cyrano), Edward Hastings' Othello; and in Passion Play under the direction of Joy Carlin. Mr. Kraft is a trainer at the Conservatory, and has taught Shakespeare at the University of California at Irvine and other educational institutions.

WILL LESKIN has appeared in A.C.T. productions of King Lear, A Christmas Carol, Diamond Lil, and Faustus in Hell; in the Conservatory he has played Miranda in The Way of the World and Claudius in Hamlet. Among his other productions in the Bay Area are Cyrano de Bergerac at San Jose Repertory Company and La Ronde with Encore Presentations. He previously performed in a Christmas Festival with Theatre Virginia in Richmond, where he also worked for three seasons with Dogwood Dell. Mr. Leskin holds a B.F.A. in acting from Virginia Commonwealth University and has completed two years in the Advanced Training Program. His wife Shannon is Managing Director of San Jose Repertory Company.

FRANCES LEE MCCAIN was a member of A.C.T. from 1970 to 1972, appearing in The Lusty Heterosexual, Dandy Dick, Odet's Paradise Lost, and as Cheyney in Cas and Cygnet. She was in Woody Allen's Play It Again, Sam on Broadway, the original production of Lando Wilson's Lemon Sky off-Broadway, and Passion (directed by Joy Carlin) at San Jose Rep. In Los Angeles, where she is a member of Ensemble Studio Theatre, she acted in Ballotti and as Natasha in Three Sisters at the Mark Taper Forum, and as Stella in A Streetcar Named Desire (with Jon Voight and Faye Dunaway) at the Ahmanson. She has appeared on television in many series and specials, and her film credits include Back to the Future, Gremlins, Footloose, Trx, and Stand By Mr. McCall trained at the Central School of Speech and Drama in London.

MICHAEL McSHANE, now in his second season with A.C.T., appeared last season as W.C. Fields, Oliver Hardy, and Jesus Christ in Faustus in Hell, and this year as Charles Dickens in A Christmas Carol and Spider Kane in Diamond Lil. He was the first recipient of the Jules Irving Award, and won the Bay Area Critics' Circle Award for Taco Jesus at the One Act Theatre. He played Folstaff in Berkeley Shakespeare Festival productions of both parts of Henry IV, and has appeared in the films Peggy Sue Got Married, Howard the Duck, and Francis Ford Coppola's Tucker. He was also in The Merry Wives of Windsor at the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival. Mr. McShane continues his association with Reed Balkinn, Brian Lohman, and the other former members of the original Faulkline company.

DELORES MITCHELL was a company member from 1976 to 1983, performing in The Little Foxes, The Rivals, The Winter's Tale, Much Ado About Nothing, The National Health, and Hotel Paradiso at the Geary, and in Plays-in-Progress productions of Afton in Augus and 30 Minutes for 25 Cents. From 1983 to 1986 she worked on the east coast as a member of the New York Shakespeare Festival Players in Romeo and Juliet and As You Like It, and at Baltimore's Center Stage, Crossroads Theatre in New Jersey, and the Toom Pole Playhouse in Pennsylvania. Miss Mitchell recently performed in A Member of the Wedding at the (Continued on page ACT-3) ACT-3
work with Western Stage has included Hotel Paradiso. He has acted with the Vermont Ensemble Theatre in Blue Window, and with the 29th Street Project in New York in Hostel Witness, Jamie's Gang, and Dakota's Belly, Wyoming. He also appeared in New York in Under Distant Skies, Boy, DEROS in the Funny Farm, and The Blue Dahlia. Mr. Hudson played Mozart in a national tour of Amadeus.

STEVEN ANTHONY JONES, who joined the A.C.T. company this season with King Lear and A Christmas Carol, has been performing for 25 years, five of those with the Negro Ensemble Company of New York, where he created the role of Pvt. James Wilkie in the original production of A Soldier's Play. He appeared locally in the Eureka Theatre productions of The Cherry Orchard, Every Moment, and The Island, and at San Jose Repertory Theatre's Master Harold... and the Boys; and in Division Street at Oakland Ensemble Theatre. Mr. Jones has also worked in film and television.

This season BARRY KRAFT, a charter member of the company, alternated in the title role of King Lear — the second time he has appeared in an A.C.T. production of the play; he is a veteran of the 1965 production in Pittsburgh. Mr. Kraft has spent 21 of the last 22 summers acting in Shakespearean festivals around the country, and has appeared in 34 of Shakespeare's 38 plays. At the Oregon Shakespearean Festival he has played John of Gaunt in Richard II, Benowine in Love's Labour's Lost, Hotspur in Henry IV, Part I, Mark Antony in Julius Caesar, Lear in The Winter's Tale, and last summer — Bottom in A Midsummer Night's Dream and Hodge in Dekker's The Shoemaker's Holiday. His work has been seen at the Empty Space in Seattle and in the San Jose Repertory Company's productions of Cyrano de Bergerac (as Cyrano), Edward Hastings' 007, Creosote, and in Passion Play under the direction of Joy Carlin. Mr. Kraft is a trainer at the Conservatory, and has taught Shakespeare at the University of California at Irvine and other educational institutions.

WILL LESKIN has appeared in A.C.T. productions of King Lear, A Christmas Carol, Diamond Lil, and Fautus in Hell; in the Conservatory he has played Mirlab in The Way of the World and Claudius and the Ghost in Hamlet. Among his other productions in the Bay Area are Cyrano de Bergerac at San Jose Repertory Company and La Ronde with Encore Presentations. He previously performed in a Christmas Shakespeare Festival Theatre Virginia in Richmond, where he also worked for three seasons with Dogwood Dell. Mr. Leskin holds a B.F.A. in acting from Virginia Commonwealth University and has completed two years in the Advanced Training Program. His wife Shannon is Managing Director of San Jose Repertory Company.

FRANCES LEE MCCAIN was a member of A.C.T. from 1970 to 1972, appearing in The Laramie Bidnessell, Dandy Dick, Odeon's Paradise Lost, and as Cecily in Casar and Clytemnestra. She was in Woody Allen's Play It Again, Sam on Broadway; the original production of Lanford Wilson's Lemon Sky off-Broadway, and Passion (directed by Joy Carlin) at San Jose Rep. In Los Angeles, where she is a member of Ensemble Studio Theatre, she acted in Balditi and as Natasha in Three Sisters at the Mark Taper Forum, and as Stella in A Streetcar Named Desire (with Jon Voight and Faye Dunaway) at the Ahmanson. She has appeared on television in many series and specials, and her film credits include Back to the Future, Grendilms, Footloose, Thr, and Stand By Mr. McCall trained at the Central School of Speech and Drama in London.

MICHAEL MCHANE, now in his second season with A.C.T., appeared last season as W.C. Fields, Oliver Hardy, and Jesus Christ in Fautus in Hell, and this year as Charles Dickens in A Christmas Carol and Spider Kane in Diamond Lil. He was the first recipient of the Jules Irving Award, and won the Bay Area Critics' Circle Award for Taco Jesus at the One Act Theatre. He played Feste in Berkeley Shakespeare Festival productions of both parts of Henry IV, and has appeared in the films Peggy Sue Got Married, Howard the Duck, and Francis Ford Coppola's Tucker. He was also in The Merry Wives of Windsor at the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival. Mr. McShane continues his association with Reed Rahlmann, Brian Lehman, and the other former members of the original Faultline company.

DELORES MITCHELL was a company member from 1976 to 1983, performing in The Little Foxes, The Rivals, The Winter's Tale, Much Ado About Nothing, The National Health, and Hotel Paradiso at the Geary, and in Plays-in-Progress productions of Afton cay and 30 Minutes for 25 Cents. From 1983 to 1986 she worked on the east coast as a member of the New York Shakespeare Festival Players in Rome and Juliet and As You Like It, and at Baltimore's Center Stage, Crossroads Theatre in New Jersey, and the Totem Pole Playhouse in Pennsylvania. Miss Mitchell recently performed in A Member of the Wedding at the (Continued on page ACT-3)
FEATHERS

Variations on Aristophanes' The Birds
(Premiere)

by Stanley R. Greenberg

Directed by John C. Fletcher
Scenery by Barbara J. Mesney
Costumes by Beaver D. Bauer
Lighting by Derek Duarte
Music composed by Peter Erskine
Sound design by Stephen LeGrand
Wigs & hair by Rick Echols
Associate Director John Lousmann

The Cast

Merchant Lawrence Hecht
Wife Kate Brickley
Messenger Bird William Paterson
Eagles Michael McShane
Nightingale Michael Scott Ryan
Lark Lanny Stephens
Swain Steven Anthony Jones
Cuckoo 1 Howard Swain Cuckoo II Liam O'Brien
Tit Jennifer Robin
Zeus Peter Donat
Iris Nancy Carlin
Taxman 1 Drew Eshelman
Taxman II Luis Oropeza

The Flock

Richard Butterfield, Elan Evans, Will Leskin, Deolores Mitchell, Don Piper,
Daniel Reichert, Cynthia Bassham, Martin Bedosian, John Forse, Susanne Hornberger, Jennifer Joyce, Susanne Nüter, Trina Oliver, Martin Robinson, Astrid Santic, Desirée Sheridan,
Mary Beth Smith, Keeley Stanley, Charo Toledo, Lyn Wright

There will be one intermission.

UNDERSTUDIES

Merchant — Barry Kraft
Wife — Deolores Mitchell
Messenger Bird — Drew Eshelman
Eagles — Will Leskin
Swain — Daniel Reichert
Nightingale — Carlotta Scarmack
Lark — Brian Crawley
Cuckoo 1 — Liam O'Brien
Cuckoo II — Howard Swain
Tit — Elan Evans
Zeus — Don Piper
Iris — Paula Markowitz
Taxmen — Scott Freeman

Stage Management:
Karen Van Zandt and Alice Elliott Smith

This production has been made possible through the generosity of
THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

presents

FEATHERS
Variations on Aristophanes' The Birds
(Premiere)

by Stanley R. Greenberg

Directed by John C. Fletcher
Scenery by Barbara J. Mesney
Costumes by Beaver D. Bauer
Lighting by Derek Duarte
Music composed by Peter Erskine
Sound design by Stephen LeGrand
Wigs & hair by Rick Echols
Associate Director John Luschmann

The Cast

Merchant — Lawrence Hecht
Wife — Kate Brickley
Messenger Bird — William Paterson
Eagles — Michael McShane
Nightingale — Michael Scott Ryan
Lark — Lanny Stephens
Cuckoo I — Steven Anthony Jones
Cuckoo II — Howard Swain
Zeus — Liam O'Brien
Iris — Jennifer Roblin
Til — Peter Donat
Taxman I — Nancy Carlin
Taxman II — Drew Eschelman

The Flock

Richard Butterfield, Evan Evans, Will Leskin, Delores Mitchell, Don Piper,
Daniel Reichert, Cynthia Bassham, Martin Bedosian, John Forse, Susanne Hornberger, Jennifer Joyce, Susanne Nutter, Trina Oliver, Martin Robinson, Asirid Santic, Desiree Sheridan,
Mary Beth Smith, Keeley Stanley, Chao Toledo, Lyn Wright

There will be one intermission.

UNDERSTUDIES

Merchant — Barry Kraft; Wife — Delores Mitchell; Messenger Bird — Drew Eschelman; Eagles — Will Leskin; Eagle — Daniel Reichert; Nightingale — Carlotta Scarmack; Lark — Brian Crawley; Cuckoo I — Liam O'Brien; Cuckoo II — Howard Swain; Til — Evan Evans; Zeus — Don Piper; Iris — Paula Markowitz; Taxmen — Scott Freeman.

Stage Management:
Karen Van Zandt and Alice Elliott Smith

This production has been made possible through the generosity of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and The New York Times.
Old Birds in New Feathers

by Jonathan Marks

Feathers is the newest of the new built upon the oldest of the old: a play of today (despite its ancient Greek setting), written this year, inspired by and drawing upon the plot and themes of one of the oldest theatrical scripts in existence, The Birds of Aristophanes.

How old is the work of Aristophanes? Shakespeare's first plays were written just four centuries ago; The Birds was written 24 centuries ago -- 2401 years, to be exact, in 414 B.C. It is, then, six times as old as the oldest scripts in common currency on the stages of the Western world.

How remote is the Greek theatre from our own? We do know a certain amount about the Athenian theatre and drama of the 5th century B.C. -- more than we know about most of the next twenty centuries -- but scholars understandably tend to highlight all they know, and de-emphasize the vast amount of important information that has been irrevocably lost.

We have eleven scripts by Aristophanes, but many more have been lost. From these eleven we generalize about Aristophanic comedy, as if it were a genre the Greeks recognized, while in fact he had many rivals, equally esteemed in their day, who have been lost: Eupolis, Magnes, Aristomenes, Phrynichus, Crates, and Plato (the other Plato, "Plato Comicus"). Entire comic genres from his day have disappeared, leaving only the faintest traces: Syracusan comedy, Mimiantri, Middle Comedy, and the highly popular improvisative tParsing.

Even those few scripts by Aristophanes that have survived — thanks to the pains of some ancient scribes and medieval clerics, whose criteria for selection are now unknown — are to a great extent mysteries to us. We know that the comedy of the Athenians, like their tragedy, was in large measure a musical form, but we know virtually nothing about the music.

And what do we know of Old Comedy — the form in which Aristophanes wrote — creates a picture that is quite unlike our image of comedy today. (By contrast New Comedy, which was created in the next century, is very similar to modern comedy.) Old Comedy was largely a choric form. Plots were unimportant; even the delineation of characters was relatively skimpy. All that was necessary was an absurd notion, a "happy idea," that could be manipulated for all its comic potential. And central to the success of any Old Comedy was the parabasis, a choral ode that addressed some serious question of the day, often totally unrelated to the theme of the rest of the play. Nothing in later comedy remotely resembles the parabasis.

When I see a place for the first time . . . I notice everything, the color of the paper, the sky, the way people walk, door knobs, every detail.

Then, after I've been there for a while, I don't notice them anymore. Only by forgetting can I remember what a place is really like . . . so maybe for me forgetting and remembering are the same thing.

— from True Stories by David Byrne, Beth Henley, and Stephen Tobolowsky

When I see a place for the first time . . .

Gravity — the big "G"

Got a hold on me

G-R-A-V-I-F-Y

Let me explain

If it's a dream

That you can fly

If you can love

Then you can defy

The big "G".

— James Brown, "Gravity"

We know that, like the tragedies, the comedies were performed in the context of a religious festival. Any notions about the ritual significance of the plays must be tempered, however, with an appreciation of how very different in tone Athenian worship was from our own. Before the tragedies were performed a gigantic phallus was carted around the theatre, and the actors in the comedies wore...
Old Birds in New Feathers
by Jonathan Marks

Feathers is the newest of the new built upon the oldest of the old: a play of today (despite its ancient Greek setting), written this year, inspired by and drawing upon the plot and themes of one of the oldest theatrical scripts in existence, The Birds of Aristophanes.

How old is the work of Aristophanes? Shakespeare's first plays were written just four centuries ago; The Birds was written 24 centuries ago—2401 years, to be exact, in 414 B.C. It is, then, six times as old as the oldest scripts in common currency on the stages of the Western world.

How remote is the Greek theatre from our own? We do know a certain amount about the Athenian theatre and drama of the 5th century B.C.—more than we know about most of the next twenty centuries—but scholars understandably tend to highlight all they know, and de-emphasize the vast amount of important information that has been irretrievably lost.

We have eleven scripts by Aristophanes, but many more have been lost. From these eleven we generalize about Aristophanic comedy, as if it were a genre the Greeks recognized, while in fact he had many rivals, equally esteemed in their day, who have been lost: Eupolis, Magnes, Aristomenes, Phrynichus, Crates, and Plato (the other Plato, “Plato Comicus”). Entire comic genres from his day have disappeared, leaving only the faintest traces: Syracusan comedy, Mimiambti, Middle Comedy, and the highly popular improvised tarches.

Even those few scripts by Aristophanes that have survived—thanks to the pains of some ancient scribes and medieval clerics, whose criteria for selection are now unknown—are to a great extent mysteries to us. We know that the comedy of the Athenians, like their tragedy, was in large measure a musical form, but we know virtually nothing about the music.

And what do we know of Old Comedy—the form in which Aristophanes wrote—creates a picture that is quite unlike our image of comedy today. (By contrast New Comedy, which was created in the next century, is very similar to modern comedy.) Old Comedy was largely a choric form. Plots were unimportant; even the delineation of characters was relatively skimpy. All that was necessary was an absurd notion, a “happy idea,” that could be manipulated for all its comic potential. And central to the success of any Old Comedy was the parabasis, a choral ode that addressed some serious question of the day, often totally unrelated to the theme of the rest of the play. Nothing in later comedy remotely resembles the parabasis.

Gravity — the big “G”
Get a hold on me
G-R-A-V-I-FY
Let me explain
If it’s a dream
That you can fly
If you can love
Then you can defy

G-R-A-V-I-FY
The big “G”.

— James Brown, “Gravity”

We know that, like the tragedies, the comedies were performed in the context of a religious festival. Any notions about the ritual significance of the plays must be tempered, however, with an appreciation of how very different in tone Athenian worship was from our own. Before the tragedies were performed a gigantic phallus was carted around the theatre, and the actors in the comedies wore... leather phallicus, with which they performed obscene bits of business. Athenian democracy was celebrated in a peculiar way: too; the playwrights exercised their freedom of speech by slandering prominent members of the audience by name. Nothing was too low or vulgar, as long as it got a laugh.

And what of Aristophanes himself? We know certain facts about his life, but there are also enormous holes in our knowledge. For example: Was he — like Aeschylus and most of the other early tragedians — the star performer in all his plays? Aelian, writing in the second century A.D., called him a “comic poet and professional buffoon,” but no other ancient source sheds any light on the question.

Once we admit how little we really know about Greek comedy, then the notion of ‘doing Aristophanes straight’ becomes absurd. And what we do know is often at odds with our received notions: the only way to maintain ‘classical decorum’ while doing Aristophanes is to censor his writing — which is what has usually been done over the years.

It won’t do. We must recognize that Aristophanes is, in large part, a stranger to us.

And yet — one of the undeniable strengths of this ancient comedian is that something about him appeals to every era. The appeal varies, but there is always an appeal.

The Birds appeals to every age because it springs from a primal urge of humanity: the desire to revoke gravity, to fly like the humble birds, to soar above the common ruck of humanity, to see the world from an exalted vantage point. And if gravity can be repealed, so can the common order of existence: the natural laws that place some beasts over others, that declare that conflict is the common state of existence, and that mortality is the lot of all. Abolish gravity and you can metamorphose, you can reverse the orders of nature, and you never have to die.

The Birds of Aristophanes springs from a happy, absurd idea of pure wish-fulfillment — and so does Stanley R. Greenberg’s Feathers. This play, though, does not pretend to be pure Aristophanes; it consists of “variations” on his themes. It is as new and lively as 1988, though it touches themes millennia old: longings that were ancient when Aristophanes lay upon a rock — as what child hasn’t? — and watched the birds cavorting overhead.

---

About the Author

Stanley R. Greenberg, who wrote FEATHERS: Variations on Aristophanes’ The Birds this year with a commission from A.C.T., is an accomplished writer of screenplays, teleplays, and drama, and has won awards in every form in which he has worked.

He is best known in the theatre for Pueblo, a play about the capture of an American spy ship off the coast of North Korea, which premiered at the Arena Stage in Washington, D.C. The televised version, which starred Hal Holbrook, won a Peabody Award.

His screenplay for Seagull Green, which starred Charlton Heston and Edward G. Robinson, earned him a Golden Nebula Award from the Science Fiction Writers of America.

Mr. Greenberg’s television work has included the dramas The Missiles of October (with Martin Sheen and William Devane as the Kennedy brothers), Blind Ambition (the story of John Dean), The Day the Bubble Burst (about the stock market crash of 1929), and I.D.R.: The Last Year with Jason Robards. He won an Emmy for The Defenders and was awarded an Edgar by the Mystery Writers of America for his television play The Apostle.

Mr. Greenberg is a resident of Kensington.

ACT VIII

WHEN YOU LIVE A CUTTY ABOVE.

Cutty Sark
Uncommon Quality
leather phalluses, with which they performed obscene bits of business. Athenian democracy was celebrated in a peculiar way, too; the playwrights exercised their freedom of speech by slandering prominent members of the audience by name. Nothing was too low or vulgar, as long as it got a laugh.

And what of Aristophanes himself? We know certain facts about his life, but there are also enormous holes in our knowledge. For example: Was he—like Aeschylus and most of the other early tragedians—the star performer in all his plays? Aelian, writing in the second century A.D., called him a "comic poet and professional buffoon," but no other ancient source sheds any light on the question.

Once we admit how little we really know about Greek comedy, then, the notion of 'doing Aristophanes straight' becomes absurd. And what we do know is often at odds with our received notions; the only way to maintain 'classical decorum' while doing Aristophanes is to censor his writing—which is what has usually been done over the years.

It won't do. We must recognize that Aristophanes is, in large part, a stranger to us.

And yet—one of the undeniable strengths of this ancient comedian is that something about him appeals to every era. The appeal varies, but there is always an appeal.

The Birds appeals to every age because it springs from a primal urge of humanity: the desire to revolve gravity, to fly like the humble birds, to soar above the common ruck of humanity, to see the world from an exalted vantage point. And if gravity can be repealed, so can the common order of existence: the natural laws that place some beasts over others, that declare that conflict is the common state of existence, and that mortality is the lot of all. Abolish gravity and you can metamorphose, you can reverse the orders of nature, and you never have to die.

The Birds of Aristophanes springs from a happy, absurd idea of pure wish-fulfillment—and so does Stanley R. Greenberg's Feathers. This play, though, does not pretend to be pure Aristophanes; it consists of "variations" on his themes. It is as new and lively as 1968, though it touches themes millennia old: longings that were ancient when Aristophanes lay upon a rock—as what child hasn't?—and watched the birds cavorting overhead.

About the Author
Stanley R. Greenberg, who wrote FEATHERS: Variations on Aristophanes' The Birds this year with a commission from A.C.T., is an accomplished writer of screenplays, teleplays, and drama, and has won awards in every form in which he has worked.

He is best known in the theatre for Pueblo, a play about the capture of an American spy ship off the coast of North Korea, which premiered at the Arena Stage in Washington, D.C. The televised version, which starred Hal Holbrook, won a Peabody Award.

His screenplay for Sgt. Pepper, which starred Charlton Heston and Edward G. Robinson, earned him a Golden Nebula Award from the Science Fiction Writers of America.

Mr. Greenberg's television work has included the dramas The Missiles of October (with Martin Sheen and William Devane as the Kennedy brothers), Blind Ambition (the story of John Dean), The Day the Bubble Burst (about the stock market crash of 1929), and F.D.R.: The Last Year with Jason Robards. He won an Emmy for The Defenders and was awarded an Edgar by the Mystery Writers of America for his television play The Apostle.

Mr. Greenberg is a resident of Kensington.

ACT 1

WHEN YOU LIVE A CUTTY ABOVE.
Grand Touring Beretta GT
$11,656.00*

Touring Grand Corsica LT
$10,991.00

To those who regard R/t #1 as a playground, the description "GT" means a car with an engine, drive-train and suspension that are up to the task of flattening out the hills and straightening out the curves.

Such a car is the Beretta GT, available with all the niceties such as a 2.8 liter fuel injected V-6, 5-speed gearbox, Delco shocks, stabilizer bars front and rear. All wrapped up in a wind-cheating coupe. Just the package for the sporty set, right?

But, what if you're like most of us and need a four-door sedan? Doesn't owning a four-door sedan automatically put you in the dull and boring category? Chevrolet doesn't think so. That's why there is Corsica LT. A four-door sedan with all the elements necessary to make driving anywhere a GT experience. Touring Grand, if you will.

Corsica can be ordered with the same available V-6 2.8 liter motor as the Beretta and a sport suspension system. Everything is there except the sleek coupe body. Instead, you get a sleek 4-door body with a drag coefficient lower than a Ferrari Testarossa. So, there you have it. A true GT sports coupe and a sedan for grand touring. From your Chevy dealer.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price for a Beretta GT equipped with GT Option Package 1 and 211 Performance Handling Package includes
Manufacturer's suggested retail price for a Corsica LT equipped with LT Option Package 2 and 2.8 Liter V-6 with M/FI. engine includes

From Chevrolet.

Let's get it together. Buckle up. See your Chevrolet dealer for terms and conditions of this limited powertrain warranty.

Dealer prep, tax, license, destination charges and other optional equipment additional. Beretta prices start at $10,656.00. Corsica prices start at $9,991.00.
Grand Touring Beretta GT $11,656.00*
Touring Grand Corsica LT $10,991.00

To those who regard R1 as a playground, the description "GT" means a car with an engine, drivetrain and suspension that are up to the task of flattening out the hills and straightening out the curves. Such a car is the Beretta GT, available with all the niceties such as a 2.8 liter fuel injected V6, 5-speed gearbox, Delco shocks, stabilizer bars front and rear, all wrapped up in a wind-cheating coupe. Just the package for the sporty set, right?

But, what if you're like most of us and need a four-door sedan? Doesn't owning a four-door sedan automatically put you in the dull and boring category? Chevrolet doesn't think so. That's why there is Corsica LT. A four-door sedan with all the elements necessary to make driving anywhere a GT experience. Touring Grand, if you will. Corsica can be ordered with the same available V6-2.8 liter motor as the Beretta and a sport suspension system. Everything is there except the sleek coupe body. Instead, you get a sleek 4-door body with a drag coefficient lower than a Ferrari Testarossa. So, there you have it. A true GT sports coupe and a sedan for grand touring. From your Chevy dealer.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price for a Beretta GT equipped with GT Option Package 1 and ZF1 Performance Handling Package includes.
Manufacturer's suggested retail price for a Corsica LT equipped with LT Option Package 2 and 2.8 Liter V6 with MFI engine, includes.
WHO'S WHO continued from page ACT-3

Oregon Shakespearean Festival and in the film The Principal with Jim Belushi and Lou Gosssett. A veteran of nine A.C.T. productions of A Christmas Carol (plus the ABC cable version), she is a graduate of Florida A. & M. University and a speech, voice, and acting trainer.

LIAM OBRIEN who is now in his second season at A.C.T., has appeared as Dennis in Sunday in the Park with George, Redpenney in The Doctor's Dilemma, Paul in The Floating Light Bulb, Pete and Charles in End of the World, ... and Stan Laurel, Charlie Chaplin, and Pee Wee Herman in Follies in Hell. Mr. O'Brien received a Drama-Logue Award for his performance as Billy in Shenan and Billy, which he played in the original production and the Magic Theatre revival. His other credits include Rent at San Francisco Repertory Theatre, The Concubine at the Fort at Theatre Rhinoceros, The Threepenny Opera at the Eureka Theatre, and Ah, Wilderness! (directed by Ron Lagomarsino) for the Berkeley Repertory Theatre's O'Neill Festival.

FRANK OTTISWELL has taught the Alexander Technique at A.C.T. since the company's beginning in Pittsburgh in 1965. He studied at the Canadian Art Theatre in his hometown of Montreal before moving to New York, where he studied at the Vera Soloviova Studio of Acting and the American Center for the Alexander Technique. He has appeared in fourteen productions at A.C.T., including The Three Sisters (which played on Broadway in 1999), The Matchmaker and Desire Under the Elms (which toured the Soviet Union), and Machei. He has also been seen in televised versions of A.C.T. productions of Gloril Hallelujahl, A Christmas Carol, and Cyrano de Bergerac. Mr. Ottiswell is a member of A.C.T.'s Board of Trustees.

LUIS OROPEZA began his career by doing Chicano street theater in the barrios of East Los Angeles, and spent five years working with Luis Valdez and El Teatro Campesino. His various Bay Area theater credits — which have earned him four Critics' Circle awards and a Drama-Logue award — include a five-year-old girl in Cloud Nine and 26 different characters in How I Got That Story (both for the Eureka Theatre), and appearances with San Jose Repertory Theatre, Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and Berkeley Repertory Theatre, where he was in Filomena and The Good Person of Szechuan. Ms. Oropeza has also worked at San Diego Repertory Theatre, New Mexico Repertory Theatre, and the Denver Center Theatre Company. In his A.C.T. debut he played the Fool in King Lear, and in Diamind Lil he was Diedrickson, the excited landlord.

WILLIAM PATERNSON is now in his 21st season with A.C.T., having joined the company in 1967 to play James Tyrone in Long Day's Journey into Night. A graduate of Brown University, Mr. Paterson served in the army for four years before starting his professional acting career in a summer stock company. He appeared for at least part of every season for twenty years at the Cleveland Play House, taking time out for live television, films, and four
WHO'S WHO continued from page ACT-3

Oregon Shakespearean festival and in the film
The Principal with Jim Belushi and Lou Gasser.
A veteran of nine A.C.T. productions of A Christmas Carol (plus the ABC cable version), she is a graduate of Florida A. & M. University and a speech, voice, and acting trainer.

LIAM O'BRIEN who is now in his second season at A.C.T., has appeared as Dennis in Sunday in the Park with George, Redency in The Doctor's Dilemma, Paul in The Floating Light Bulb, Pete and Charles in End of the World... and Stan Laurel, Charlie Chaplin, and Pee Wee Herman in Essie in Hell. Mr. O'Brien received a Drama-Logue Award for his performance as Billy in Shunen and Billy, which he played in the original production and the Magic Theatre revival. His other credits include Rent at San Francisco Repertory Theatre, The Concubine at the Fire at Theatre Rhinoceros, The Threepenny Opera at the Eureka Theatre, and Ah, Wilderness!
(directed by Ron Lagomarsino) for the Berkeley Repertory Theatre's O'Neill Festival.

FRANK OTTIELWELL has taught the Alexander Technique at A.C.T. since the company's begining in Pittsburgh in 1965. He studied at the Canadian Art Theatre in his hometown of Montreal before moving to New York, where he studied at the Vera Soloviova Studio of Acting and the American Center for the Alexander Technique. He has appeared in fourteen productions at A.C.T., including The Three Sisters (which played on Broadway in 1969), The Matchmaker and Desire Under the Elms (which toured the Soviet Union), and Macbeth. He has also been seen in televised versions of A.C.T. productions of Glori Hallelujah, A Christmas Carol, and Cyrano de Bergerac. Mr. Ottwell is a member of A.C.T.'s Board of Trustees.

LUIS OROPEZA began his career by doing Chicano street theatre in the barrios of East Los Angeles, and spent five years working with Luis Valdez and El Teatro Campesino. His various Bay Area theatre credits — which have earned him four Critics' Circle awards and a Drama-Logue award — include a five-year-old girl in Clue Nine and 26 different characters in How I Got That Story (both for the Eureka Theatre), and appearances with San Jose
Repertory Theatre, Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and Berkeley Repertory Theatre, where he was in Filomena and The Good Person of Szechuan. Ms. Oropez has also worked at San Diego Repertory Theatre, New Mexico Repertory Theatre, and the Denver Center Theatre Company. In his A.C.T. debut he played the Fool in King Lear, and in Diamant Lil he was Diedrickson, the exciúed landlord.

WILLIAM PATTERSON is now in his 21st season with A.C.T. Having joined the company in 1967 to play James Tyrone in Long Day's Journey into Night. A graduate of Brown University, Mr. Paterson served in the army for four years before starting his professional acting career in a summer stock company. He appeared for at least part of every season for twenty years at the Cleveland Play House, taking time out for live television, films, and four national tours with his own one-man shows. His major roles for A.C.T. include You Can't Take It With You, Jumpers, The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), All the Way Home (Japan tour), Buried Child, The Gin Game, Dial "M" for Murder, Painting Churches, The Doctor's Dilemma, End of the World... and King Lear. He played Scrooge in the original A.C.T. production of A Christmas Carol, and this season he was Scrooge again in its twelfth production. He serves as a member of the San Francisco Arts Commission and is a member of A.C.T.'s Board of Trustees.

DON PIPER is a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, and has appeared in End of the World... A Christmas Carol and Diamond Lil at the Geary and in studio productions of The Cherry Orchard, Hamlet, Henry VI, The Way of the World, and The Physicists. He appeared in the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival's production of Much Ado About Nothing as Borachio and Encore Presentations' Sealed as Harry. He has toured nationally in Annie Get Your Gun, The 1940's Radio Hour, and The Student Prince. Mr. Piper has performed in Dallas/Ft. Worth in Major Barrier, Deathtrap, and Whose Life Is It, Anyway?

JENNIFER ROBLIN is a third-year student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. Her studio performances include Irina in The Three Sisters, Fanny Squeers in Nicholas Nickleby, Margaret in Henry VI (Parts I and II), Mrs. Fainall in The Way of the World, Dainty Fidget in The Country Wife, and Lucille in Gemini. This year she has appeared at the Geary in A Christmas Carol and Diamond Lil, and as Stan in Encore Presentations' production of Duse, Fish, Stan & V. Ms. Roblin studied history and English at Trinity College, University of Toronto.

MICHAEL SCOTT RYAN, a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, has appeared in the Geary stage this season as Pablo Juarez in Diamond Lil, Mr. Driscoll in Golden Boy, and Jacob Marley in A Christmas Carol. His roles in studio productions within The Conservatory have included Verschinin in The Three Sisters, Witwoud in The Way of the World, and Prospero in a modern adaptation of The Tempest. He played Oberon in John C. Fletcher's production of A Midsummer Night's Dream at the Westwood Playhouse in Los Angeles and at P.C.P.A. Theatrefest, where he also played Adolph Eichmann in God. Mr. Ryan danced as a witch in the San Francisco Opera's Macbeth, and was featured as John in Orpheus Descending with the New York Stage and Film Company and as Benedick in the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival production of Much Ado About Nothing, directed by Albert Mazzucco. A native of Massachusetts, Mr. Reichert holds an A.B. in English from Vassar.

CARLOTTA SCARMACK, a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, performed this year in A Christmas Carol and Diamond Lil. Among her roles in studio productions at A.C.T. are Orphieia in Hamlet, Lady Wishfort in The Way of the World, Miss Krag and Tilda Price in Nicholas Nickleby, Ida Bolten in Morning's at Seven, and Madame Ranevsky in The Cherry Orchard. Last summer she appeared in P.C.P.A. Theatrefest productions of A Midsummer Night's Dream and Good. A native of Athens, Ohio, Miss Scarmack received a B.F.A. in theatre from Ohio University and performed in numerous productions for its School of Theatre and the Ohio Valley Summer Theatre.

LANNYL STEPHENS, now in her second season with the company, has appeared as Sally in A Life of the Mind, Mrs. in Sunday in the Park with George, Betty Boop and Marilyn Monroe in Faustus in Hell, and in Diamond Lil, A Christmas Carol, The Seagull, and studio performances of Tartuffe, The Three Sisters, King Lear, and Luise Breze. She appeared at the Bay Area Playwrights' Festival as Sister in Looking in the Dark for... and as Sister Robert Anne in Nunsense at the Marines Memorial Theatre. Miss Stevens is a founding member of Encore Presentations, for which she played the role of the Parlor Maid-temp in last year's production of La Ronde. She holds a B.A. in theatre arts from the University of Texas.

HOWARD SWAIN has appeared in A.C.T. productions of A Life of the Mind, The Doctor's Dilemma, A Christmas Carol, Diamond Lil, and The Seagull. He has worked with the Magic Theatre, Eureka Theatre, One Act Theatre, San Francisco Repertory Company, Overtone Theatre, Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, Berkeley Jewish Theatre, San Jose Repertory Company, Shakespeare Santa Cruz, and the Oregon Shakespeare Festival. He appeared as Crow in The Doth of Crime at the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, for which he received a Bay Area Critics' Circle Award. Mr. Swain's other credits include roles in Partners in Crime and Hill St. Blues on network television and the forthcoming films Cherry 2000 and Miracle Mile.

SYDNEY WALKER, a forty-year veteran of stage, film, and television, has performed in some 217 productions. A native of Philadelphia, he trained with Jasper Deeter at the Hedgerow Theatre in Mayland, Pennsylvania, and from 1963 to 1969 was a leading actor with the APA Repertory Company in New York under the direction of Ellis Rabb. He also appeared for three seasons with the Lincoln Center Repertory Company under Jules Irving. In 1974 Mr. Walker joined A.C.T., and has since performed in forty-nine productions including The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), Peer Gynt, The Circle, Diamond Lil, A Christmas Carol, Lear, Angels Fall, The School for Wives, and Translations. He has appeared on television in such series as The Guiding Light and The Secret Storm, and acted in Love Story and the NBC-TV film Eye on the Sparrow. Mr. Walker was narrator for the KQED-TV series New York Master Chefs and teaches auditioning in A.C.T.'s Conservatory.
national tours with his own one-man shows. His major roles for A.C.T. include You Can't Take It With You, Jumprope, The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), All the Way Home (Japan tour), Buried Child, The Gin Game, Dial M for Murder, Painting Churches, The Doctor's Dilemma, End of the World... and King Lear. He played Scrooge in the original A.C.T. production of A Christmas Carol, and this season he was Scrooge again in its twelfth production. He serves as a member of the San Francisco Arts Commission and is a member of A.C.T.'s Board of Trustees.

DON PIPER is a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, and has appeared in End of the World... A Christmas Carol, and Diamond Lil at the Geary and in studio productions of The Cherry Orchard, Hamlet, Henry VI, The Way of the World, and The Physicist. He appeared in the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival's production of Much Ado About Nothing as Borachio and Encore Presentations' Servant as Harry. He has toured nationally in Annie Get Your Gun, The 1940's Radio Hour, and The Student Prince. Mr. Piper has performed in Dallas Pit. Worth in Major Barbers, Deathtrap, and WHOSE Life Is It, Anyway?

This year DANIEL REICHERT, a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, has appeared in King Lear and performed in A Christmas Carol and Diamond Lil. In studio productions at A.C.T. he played Lopashin in The Cherry Orchard, York in Henry VI, Part II, Horner in The Country Wife, Sir Mulberry Hawk in Nicholas Nickleby, Laertes in Hamlet, and Iran in Gemini. Last summer he appeared as Jabe in Orpheus Descending with the New York Stage and Film Company and as Benedick in the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival production of Much Ado About Nothing, directed by Albert Takacsy. A native of Massachusetts, Mr. Reichert holds an A.B. in English from Vassar.

JENNIFER ROBLIN is a third-year student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. Her studio performances include Irina in The Three Sisters, Fanny Squeers in Nicholas Nickleby, Margaret in Henry VI (Parts I and II), Mrs. Fainall in The Way of the World, Dainty Fidget in The Country Wife, and Lucille in Gemini. This year she has appeared as the Geary in A Christmas Carol and Diamond Lil, and as Stan in Encore Presentations' production of Duse, Fish, Stan & VA. Ms. Roblin studied history and English at Trinity College, University of Toronto.

MICHAEL SCOTT RYAN, a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, has appeared in the Geary stage this season as Pablo Juarez in Diamond Lil, Mr. Driscoll in Golden Boy, and Jacob Marley in A Christmas Carol. His roles in studio productions within the Conservatory have included Ventuxin in The Three Sisters, Witwoud in The Way of the World, and Prospero in a modern adaptation of The Tempest. He played Oberon in John C. Fletcher's production of A Midsummer Night's Dream at the Westwood Playhouse in Los Angeles and at P.C.F.A Theaterfest, where he also played Adolph Eichmann in Good. Mr. Ryan danced as a witch in the San Francisco Opera's Macbeth, and was featured as John.

STEINBECK in a three-part radio series for PBS.

CARLOTTA SCARMACK, a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program, performed this year in A Christmas Carol and Diamond Lil. Among her roles in studio productions at A.C.T. are Orphelia in Hamlet, Lady Wishfort in The Way of the World, Miss Krag and Tilda Price in Nicholas Nickleby, Ida Bolten in Morning's at Seven, and Madame Ranevsky in The Cherry Orchard. Last summer she appeared in P.C.F.A. Theaterfest productions of A Midsummer Night's Dream and Good. A native of Athens, Ohio, Miss Scarmack received a B.F.A. in theatre from Ohio University and performed in numerous productions for its School of Theatre and the Ohio Valley Summer Theatre.

LANNY STEPHENS, now in her second season with the company, has appeared as Sally in A Lie of the Mind, Mrs. in Sunday in the Park with George, Betty Boop and Marilyn Monroe in Faustus in Hell, and in Diamond Lil, A Christmas Carol, The Seagull, and studio performances of Tarrnke, The Three Sisters, King Lear, and Lydie Breeze. She appeared at the Bay Area Playwrights' Festival as Sister in Looking in the Dark for... and as Sister Robert Anne in Nunsense at the Marines Memorial Theatre. Miss Stephens is a founding member of Encore Presentations, for which she played the role of the Parlor Maid Temp in last season's production of La Ronde. She holds a B.A. in theatre arts from the University of Texas.

HOWARD SWAIN has appeared in A.C.T. productions of A Lie of the Mind, The Doctor's Dilemma, A Christmas Carol, Diamond Lil, and The Seagull. He has worked with the Magic Theatre, Eureka Theatre, One Act Theatre, San Francisco Repertory Company, Overtime Theatre, Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, Berkeley Jewish Theatre, San Jose Repertory Company, Shakespeare Santa Cruz, and the Oregon Shakespeare Festival. He appeared as Crow in The Doth of Crime at the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, for which he received a Bay Area Critic's Circle Award. Mr. Swain's other credits include roles in Berzerkers in Crime and Hill St. Blues on network television and the forthcoming films Cherry 2000 and Miracle Mile.

SYDNEY WALKER, a forty-year veteran of stage, film, and television, has performed in some 275 productions. A native of Philadelphia, he trained with Jasper Deeter at the Hedgerow Theatre in Moylan, Pennsylvania, and from 1963 to 1969 was a leading actor with the APA Repertory Company in New York under the direction of Ellis Rabb. He also appeared for three seasons with the Lincoln Center Repertory Company under Jules Irving. In 1974 Mr. Walker joined A.C.T., and has since performed in forty-nine productions including The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), Peer Gynt, The Circle, Diamond Lil, A Christmas Carol, Loet, Angels Fall, The School for Wives, andTranslations. He has appeared on television in such serials as The Guiding Light and The Secret Storm, and acted in Love Story and the NBC-TV film Eye on the Sparrow. Mr. Walker was narrator for the KQED-TV series New York Master Chefs and teaches auditions in A.C.T.'s Conservatory.
EDWARD HASTINGS (Artistic Director), who assumed the leadership of A.C.T. early in 1986 and was artistic director of the company through the most successful season in its history, is a graduate of Yale College and the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art. A founding member of A.C.T., he directed The Charley's Aunt and A Tour during the company's first two San Francisco seasons. Since then he has staged many shows for A.C.T., including The Time of Your Life, The House of Blue Leaves, Street Scene, Fifth of July, The Real Thing, and this season's King Lear. In 1972 he founded Plays-in-Progress, which is designed to develop the reading, production and production of new writing. Mr. Hastings served as a resident director at the Eugene O'Neill Playwrights' Conference in Connecticut for three summers, and taught acting in 1984 at the Shanghai Drama Institute as part of the Theatre Bridge Program between A.C.T. and the Shanghai Theatre. He directed the national company of the Broadway musical Oliver!, staged the American production of Shakespeare's People starring Michael Redgrave, directed the Australian premiere of The Hot Hot 1 Bay Area, and restaged his A.C.T. production of Sam Shepard's Buried Child in Serbo-Croatian at the Berliner Ensemble. He has been a guest director at resident theatres throughout the country.

JOHN SULLIVAN (Managing Director) joined A.C.T. as its chief administrative officer in 1966. A former deputy director of the California Arts Council, he is a member of Theatre Bay Area and a member of the advisory board of the San Francisco New Vaudeville Festival. A native San Franciscan, Mr. Sullivan has been active in the arts in the Bay Area and mid-1970's when he directed Harvey Penny's Afternoon at the Circle Repertory Company in New York. He later joined the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles and served as its forum laboratory. More recently he produced The Detective, a collaboration between Joseph Chatin and Vaudeville Nouveau at San Francisco's Magic Theatre. A graduate of the University of Southern California School of Cinema, Mr. Sullivan has written and directed numerous short films, including three that were featured, The Suicide, the world Emmy Awards broadcast. He is co-author of The ACT12.

The director of Golden Boy, Joy CARLIN (Associate Artistic Director) has been a member of A.C.T. since 1984, and has directed such roles she has played are Meg in A Lie of the Mind, Miss Prism in The Importance of Being Earnest, Kitty Duval in The Time of Your Life, Banana in The Hotel, Gaunt, Aunt Sally in All the Way Home, Birdie, and Oidile in Opéra Comique. She has been Resident Director of the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, and served as its Acting Director. Among her other directing credits are The House of Bernarda Alba, The Lady's Not for Burning, The Time of Your Life, A.C.T., and productions at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, the San Jose Repertory Company, A Contemporary Theatre of Seattle, and the Shanghai Drama Institute in China, where she directed You Can't Take It With You. She is a trustee of the Berkeley Jewish Theatre.

DENNIS POWERS (Associate Artistic Director) joined A.C.T. in 1987. After several years as Press Representative and he became General Director William Ball's executive assistant and, later, Dramaturg and Artists and Repertory Director. He has directed sets for Stephen Paulus's The Postman Always Rings Twice at the Fort Worth Opera. Mr. Hollih's designs for the Sacramento Theatre Company included Twelfth Night, Dreamworld, and Cold Stone.

The director of Golden Boy, Joy CARLIN (Associate Artistic Director) has been a member of A.C.T. since 1984, and has directed such roles she has played are Meg in A Lie of the Mind, Miss Prism in The Importance of Being Earnest, Kitty Duval in The Time of Your Life, Banana in The Hotel, Gaunt, Aunt Sally in All the Way Home, Birdie, and Oidile in Opéra Comique. She has been Resident Director of the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, and served as its Acting Director. Among her other directing credits are The House of Bernarda Alba, The Lady's Not for Burning, The Time of Your Life, A.C.T., and productions at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, the San Jose Repertory Company, A Contemporary Theatre of Seattle, and the Shanghai Drama Institute in China, where she directed You Can't Take It With You. She is a trustee of the Berkeley Jewish Theatre.

WARREN TRAVIS (Costumes) designed sets and costumes for A.C.T.'s The Lady's Not for Burning two seasons ago, and previously worked with the company as costume designer for Reno and Juliet under the direction of the late Allen Fletcher. At P.C.P.A. in Santa Maria he worked with Mr. Fletcher and the director John C. Fletcher, on The Suicide, and designed sets for The Misanthrope of Chaillot. He won a Drama-Louge award for The Comedy of Errors at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, and Bay Area Theatre Critics' Circle award for costumes for Pericles and Cymbeline at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, where he also designed a set for four of the history plays. A professor of dramatic arts at U.C. Berkeley, Mr. Travis created designs for The Norman Conquests at Berkeley Rep and Trigger, with music by Philip Glass, for the Oakland Ballet.

Costumes by BEAVER D. BAUER have been seen this season in A.C.T. productions of A Lie of the Mind and The Floating Light Bulb. She has designed extensively at the M.T. Theatre, Eureka Theatre, Lamplighters' Musical Theatre, San Francisco Shakespeare Festival, and the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, where she recently designed costumes for What the Butler Saw. Since 1972 she has worked in all capacities for the Angels of Light, a troupe that specializes in fantastic, outrageous, and magical cabaret and theatricals, which is possible for their productions of Holy Cow, Hotel of Follies, and True Tales of Hollywood Horror.

DEREK DUARTE (Lighting) is in his third season as A.C.T.'s Resident Lighting Designer. Last season he designed eight productions, including The Real Thing and Sunday in the Park with George. Recently Mr. Duarte designed lighting for the Los Angeles Theatre Center's production of Macbeth at the New York premiere of an adaptation of Charles Dickens's Hard Times. His work has been seen at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., and on the Fringe at the Edinburgh Festival in Scotland. Mr. Duarte holds an M.F.A. in thea-re technology from U.C.L.A., and teaches at Chabot College. In 1986 he won a Theatre Communications Group grant to observe the work of lighting designers in New York.

PETER ERSKINE (Composer) is a drummer who has played with such groups as Stan Ken-
EDWARD HASTINGS (Artistic Director), who assumed the leadership of A.C.T. early in 1986 and last year. Acting as the company through the most successful season in its history, is a graduate of Yale College and the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art. A founding member of A.C.T., he directed The Charley's Aunt Tour during the company's first two San Francisco seasons. Since then he has staged many events for A.C.T., including The Time of Your Life, The House of Blue Lanterns, Street Scene, Fifth of July, The Real Thing, and this season's King Lear. In 1972 he founded Plays-in-Progress, which is dedicated to the development and production of new writing. Mr. Hastings served as a resident director at the Eugene O'Neill Playwrights' Conference in Connecticut for three summers, and taught acting in 1984 at the Shanghai Drama Institute as part of the Theatre Bridge Program between A.C.T. and the Shanghai Theatre. He directed the national company of the Broadway musical Oliver!, staged the American production of Shakespeare's People starring Michael Redgrave, directed the Australian premiere of The Hot Hot Bay Area, and restaged his A.C.T. production of Sam Shepard's Buried Child in Serbo-Croatian at the Edinburgh Festival Theatre in Belgrade. In 1985 he was a guest director at resident theatres throughout the country.

JOHN SULLIVAN (Managing Director) joined A.C.T. as its first administrative officer in 1966. A former deputy director of the California Arts Council, he is a member of the Theatre Bay Area and a member of the advisory board of the San Francisco New Vaudeville Festival. A native San Franciscan, Mr. Sullivan has been active in the theatre since the mid-1950's when he directed Harvey Perr's Afternoon at the Circle Repertory Company in New York. He later joined the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles as the company's general manager. More recently he produced The Detective, a collaboration between Joseph Chaikin and Vaucluse Nouveau at San Francisco's Magic Theatre. A graduate of the University of Southern California School of Cinema, Mr. Sullivan has written and directed numerous short films, including three that were featured, The Suicide, the world premiere Awards broadcast. He is co-author of The ACTF12 National Outdoor Leadership School's Wilderness Guide, a manual for camping and mountaineer- ing published by Simon and Schuster.

The director of Golden Boy, JOY CARLIN (Associate Artistic Director) has been a member of A.C.T. since 1980. In 1984, and A Midsummer Night's Dream in 1985, she has directed Resident Director of the Berkeley Repertory Theatre, and served as its Acting Director, among her other directing directing credits are The House of Bernarda Alba, The Lady's Not For Burning, The Chairs, A.C.T., and productions at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival, the San Jose Repertory Company, A Contemporary Theatre of Seat- tle, and the Shanghai Drama Institute in China, where she directed You Can't Take It With You. She is a trustee of the Berkeley Jewish Theatre.

DENNIS POWERS (Associate Artistic Director) joined A.C.T. in 1967. After several years as a Press Representative and became General Director William Ball's executive assistant and, later, Dramaturg and Artists and Repertory Director. With the company's growth, he was responsible for the creation of a new division at the theatre. He was responsible for the creation of many other Bay Area companies, including Berkeley Repertory Theatre, San Francisco Ballet, San Francisco Opera Showcase, Magic Theatre (where he directed the premiere production of Sam Shepard's True West), Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and Marin Theatre Company. Among his productions for the Oregon Shakespeare Festival are last year's The Member of the Wedding and A Midsummer Night's Dream in 1985. He has directed sets for Stephen Paulino's The Postman Always Rings Twice at the Fort Worth Opera. Mr. Hollis's designs for the Sacramento Theatre Company include Twelfth Night, Dreamhouse, and Cold Stone.

In the past two seasons BARBARA MESNEY (Scenery) has designed an extraordinary number of productions in the Bay Area: A Life of the Mind at A.C.T.; Sharon and Billy, Wild Indian, and Pleading My Love at the Magic; The Winter's Tale and The Road at the Eureka; Pentamomie at the Denver Center Company and Company; Christmas Carol at the Denver Center Company. Both Cynno and A Christmas Carol have been presented on television.

JOHN FLETCHER (Director), who makes his Geary Theatre debut with Faiths, has directed extensively at the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts, where his productions have included A Midsummer Night's Dream, Richard II, Good, The Seagull, and Who's Afraid of Dark Lady, and Dopes on a Rope, which he also wrote. He directed Clarence Darrow at Playmakers Repertory in Chapel Hill, N.C. and David Mamet's Speed-the-Plow at the Institute of the Arts, and in Los Angeles he won Drama-Logue Awards for Our Town (best production of 1983). Private Parts (best direction and play of 1986). He directed The Chairs, and Mrs. Trelawney's Night's Dream (best production and direction, 1987). Mr. Fletcher studied acting at Juilliard and film at N.Y.U. and the San Francisco Art Institute, and has taught acting at C.P.P.A. (where he was Director of Actor Training), the University of North Carolina, and A.C.T., where he has directed many studio productions and served as Assistant Director of Conservatory Training.

A.C.T. JESSE HOLLIS (Scenery) has designed The Majestic Kid, The Doctor's Dilemma, and Mr. Rimsky's Black Bottom (which also played at the Los Angeles Theatre Center). He has created scenery for many other Bay Area companies, including the Berkeley Repertory Theatre (nine productions). San Francisco Ballet, San Francisco Opera Showcase, Magic Theatre (where he directed the premiere production of Sam Shepard's True West), Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and Marin Theatre Company. Among his productions for the Oregon Shakespeare Festival are last year's The Member of the Wedding and A Midsummer Night's Dream. He has also directed sets for Stephen Paulino's The Postman Always Rings Twice at the Berkeley Repertory Theatre. He has also designed costumes for What the Butler Saw. Since 1972 he has worked in all capacities for the Angels of Light, a troupe that specializes in fantastic, outrageous, and outlandish costumes. He is currently in demand for his costumes for Holy Cow, Hotel of Follies, and True Tales of Hollywood Horror.

DEREK DUARTE (Lighting) is in his third season as A.C.T.'s Resident Lighting Designer. Last season he designed eight productions, including The Real Thing and Sunday in the Park with Geory. Recently Mr. Duarte designed lighting for the Los Angeles Theatre Centre A.C.T. production of Martin Sherman's Black Bottom and the New York premiere of an adaptation of Charles Dickens's Hard Times. His work has been seen at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., and on the Fringe at the Edinburgh Festival in Scotland. Mr. Duarte holds an M.F.A. in the theatre technology from U.C.L.A., and teaches at Chabot College. In 1986 he won a Theatre Communications Group grant to observe the work of lighting designers in New York.

PETER ERSKINE (Composer) is a drummer who has played with such groups as Stan Ken-
He has worked on more than 70 productions at A.C.T.

KAREN VAN ZANDT (Production Stage Manager) now in her eighth year at A.C.T., has stage-managed company productions of A Christmas Carol, The Steadying Prince, Mourning Becomes Electra, and The Parrot's Beak. She has also worked at the Marines Memorial Theatre as production stage manager for The Boys in Autumn (with Kirk Douglas and Burt Lancaster) and Top Girls by Caryl Churchill. Ms. Van Zandt was the production stage manager for Greater Tuna for a year.

ALICE ELLIOTT SMITH (Stage Manager) began her career at A.C.T. as a stage management intern. In her ninth season, she has since become A.C.T.'s master schedule coordinator, production coordinator of Plays in Progress, director of staged readings, associate director of the Troubadour program, director of the studio production Air: Wilderness, and co-director of Morning's at Seven and Picnic. Last season she was co-director of the PIP production Rio Seco. During the past three seasons she stage-managed Open Commedia, Night, Mother, Private Lives, The Lady's Not For Burning, The Floating Light Bulb, and Faustus in Hell.

DUNCAN W. GRAHAM (Stage Manager) is in his third season with A.C.T. He has also stage-managed for San Jose Repertory Company, Sunnysvale Summer Repertory, and the California Theatre Center, where he was Production Stage Manager and lighting designer. Last summer Mr. Graham was Production Manager for the Performing Arts Alliance Festival at Foothill College.

BRUCE ELSBERGER (Stage Manager) was in Seattle for the past three years as Production Stage Manager at the Intiman Theatre and Production Manager with the Bathhouse Theatre. He directed the Intiman's acting intern production of A Streetcar Named Desire last season, and produced and directed various shows independently. Before moving to Seattle, he had served as Production Stage Manager with P.P.A. Theatrefest in Solvang and Santa Maria. Mr. Elsberger, who studied in London and graduated from Drake University, has also worked with disturbed children as an art therapist in the Des Moines schools.

CONTRIBUTORS

The American Conservatory Theatre is grateful for its continuing support from individuals, local and national foundations and corporations, the California Arts Council, the City and County of San Francisco Grants for the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts. Our donors make great theatre possible. We salute them by associating their names with the literary giants of our rich dramatic heritage. This list reflects gifts received between June 1, 1987 and March 31, 1988.

SOPHOCLES CIRCLE ($25,000 AND ABOVE)

Arthur Anderson & Co.
William & Flora Hewlett Foundation
James Irvine Foundation
Koret Foundation
Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
National Corporate Theatre Fund
The Purintan San Francisco
San Francisco Foundation
Shubert Foundation
USAir

SHAKESPEARE CIRCLE ($10,000-$24,999)

An Anonymous Benefactor
AT&T
The Bernard Osher Foundation
First Nationwide Bank
Dr. Margot Hedden Green
Louis R. LUrie Foundation
Mr. & Mrs. Burton J. McMurtry
Mr. & Mrs. Al Moorman
PG&E
Pacific Teleis Foundation
Simpson Paper Company
L.J. and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation
Mrs. Paul L. Watti
Xerox Foundation

WILLIAMS CIRCLE ($5,000-$9,999)

Merryn L. Brenner Foundation
Carter Hawley Hale Stores, Inc.
Chevron U.S.A., Inc.
Crown Zellerbach Foundation
Fireman's Fund Foundation
Wallace A. Gerberd Foundation
Goethe Institute
Mr. & Mrs. Douglas Grigg
Richard and Rhoda Goldman Fund
Warner and Elise Haas Fund
Suzaat and Mabel Hedden Trust
Mr. & Mrs. Franklin P. Johnson
Rose Lash Revocable Trust
Mr. Robert M. Moore
The New York Times
David and Lucile Packard Foundation

Dr. & Mrs. H. Harrison Sadler
Mr. & Mrs. Philip Schlein
Union Pacific Foundation

O'NEILL CIRCLE ($2,500-$4,999)

An Anonymous Benefactor
Mr. Orlando Diaz-Azcuy
Mr. & Mrs. Ray Dolby
Mr. & Mrs. William R. Hambrecht
Hyperian Foundation
Mrs. Ada Glover Jackson
Mobil Oil Foundation
Mrs. George Quest
Louise and Claude Rosenberg, Jr.
The Swig Foundation
Mrs. Sylvia Coe Tolll
Mr. & Mrs. Gary J. Torre
Mrs. Alice B. Vincillone
Young Presidents Organization

WILDER CIRCLE ($1,000-$2,499)

An Anonymous Benefactor
Alumax, Inc.
BankAmerica Foundation
Mr. William R. Bates
Mr. & Mrs. Ernest A. Benesh
Mr. & Mrs. Conrad Bentzen
Mr. & Mrs. Aaron Bezzedides
Mr. & Mrs. Corwin Booth
Robert and Alice Bridges Foundation
Mr. & Mrs. John M. Bryan
Mr. Paul T. Buamagel
Mrs. Lewis S. Callaghan
Mr. Richard Carroll
Mr. H. Brooke Clyde
Ms. Margaret E. Dennis
The Distribution Fund
Eldorado Foundation
Mr. Werner Erhard
Mr. Peter J. Farley
Friedman Family Foundation
Mr. Ralph R. Garrow, Jr. and Ms. Laurie Roll
Mr. & Mrs. Hellmut E. Gerson
Mr. & Mrs. Edward L. Ginzton
Ms. Jean Hargrove
Mr. & Mrs. George F. Jewett, Jr.
Mrs. John R. Kiely
CONTRIBUTORS

The American Conservatory Theatre is grateful for its continuing support from individuals, local and national foundations and corporations, the California Arts Council, the City and County of San Francisco Grants for the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Our donors make great theatre possible. We salute them by associating their names with the literary giants of our rich dramatic heritage. This list reflects gifts received between June 1, 1987 and March 31, 1988.

SOPHOCLES CIRCLE ($25,000 AND ABOVE)
Arthur Anderson & Co. in memory of Myrna and Frederick Anderson

WILLIAMS CIRCLE ($5,000-$9,999)
Merryn L. Brenner Foundation
Carter Hawley Hale Stores, Inc.
Chevron U.S.A., Inc.
Crown Zellerbach Foundation
Fireman's Fund Foundation
Wallace A. Gerbode Foundation
Goethe Institute
Mr. & Mrs. Douglas Grigg
Richard and Rhoda Goldman Fund
Walter and Elise Haas Fund
Susan and Mabel Hedden Trust
Mr. & Mrs. Franklin P. Johnson
Rose Lash Revocable Trust
Mr. Robert M. Moore
The New York Times
David and Lucile Packard Foundation

Dr. & Mrs. H. Harrison Saddler
Mr. & Mrs. Philip Schlein
Union Pacific Foundation

O'NEILL CIRCLE ($2,500-$4,999)

An Anonymous Benefactor
Mr. Orlando Diaz-Azcuy
Mr. & Mrs. Ray Dolby
Mr. & Mrs. William R. Hambrecht
Hyperian Foundation
Mrs. Ada Glover Jackson
Mobil Oil Foundation
Mrs. George Quist
Louise and Claude Rosenberg, Jr.

The Swig Foundation
Mrs. Sylvia Coe Toll
Mr. & Mrs. Gary J. Torre
Mrs. Alice B. Vincillone
Young Presidents Organization

TOTAL ($1,500-$2,499)

An Anonymous Benefactor
Mr. Alan D. Blum

WILDER CIRCLE ($1,000-$1,499)

An Anonymous Benefactor
Alamex, Inc.
Bank America Foundation
Mr. William R. Bates
Mr. & Mrs. Ernest A. Benesch
Mr. & Mrs. Conrad Bentzen
Mr. & Mrs. Aaron Bezzides
Mr. & Mrs. Corwin Booth
Robert and Alice Bridges Foundation
Mr. & Mrs. John M. Bryan
Mr. Paul T. Buena

WILD CIRCLE ($500-$999)

Merryn L. Brenner Foundation
Carter Hawley Hale Stores, Inc.
Chevron U.S.A., Inc.
Crown Zellerbach Foundation
Fireman's Fund Foundation
Wallace A. Gerbode Foundation
Goethe Institute
Mr. & Mrs. Douglas Grigg
Richard and Rhoda Goldman Fund
Walter and Elise Haas Fund

Mr. Robert M. Moore
The New York Times

Mr. & Mrs. George F. Jewett, Jr.
Mr. & Mrs. John R. Kiely

Mr. & Mrs. John M. Bryan

Mr. Paul T. Buena

WILD CIRCLE ($250,000 AND ABOVE)

Arthur Andersen & Co.
William & Flora Hewlett Foundation
James Irvine Foundation
Koret Foundation
Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
National Corporate Theatre Fund
The Purinton San Francisco San Francisco Foundation
Shubert Foundation
US Air

SHAKESPEARE CIRCLE ($10,000-$24,999)

An Anonymous Benefactor
ALF
The Bernard Osher Foundation
First Nationwide Bank
Dr. Margot Hedden Green
Louis R. Lurie Foundation
Mr. & Mrs. Burton J. McMurtry

Pacific Televisio Foundation

Simpson Paper Company
J. L. and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation

Mrs. Paul L. Wattis
Xerox Foundation

BRUCE ELSPEERGER (Stage Manager) was in Seattle for the past three years as Production Stage Manager at the Intiman Theatre and Production Manager with the Bathhouse Theatre. He directed the Intiman’s acting intern production of A Streetcar Named Desire last season and produced and directed various shows independently. Before moving to Seattle, he had served as Production Stage Manager with P.C.P.A. Theatreest at Solvang and Santa Maria. Mr. Elsperrer, who studied in London and graduated from Drake University, has also worked with disturbed children as an art therapist in the Des Moines schools.
FOR A SELECTED FEW

- Shared ownership in our private club atop The Donnelo, San Francisco’s Grand Luxe, European-style hotel
- Conservatory lounge, rooftop terrace, drawing room and business parlour
- 24-hour professional staff to serve you
- 365 days-a-year for business, social or personal use

The Board of Governors invites your inquiries about a club so exclusive there are no members, only owners. Sandra Young, our Club Concierge, would be pleased to receive your call Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

(800) 336-6226
CLUB DONELLO
Atop The Donnelo
501 Post Street (just off Union Square), San Francisco, CA 94102
The Art of Living Well Away From Home

“Let’s Go to Harry’s Bar.”

After the performance, or before, enjoy the unique oasis of Northern Italy at Harry’s Bar. Dinner is served until 11 Sunday through Thursday, midnight Friday and Saturday. Phone for reservations at intermission.

HARRY’S BAR AND AMERICAN GRILL
500 Van Ness Avenue (415) 86-HARRY, Valet parking available.
A practical self-improvement handbook for success and happiness from bestselling author L. Ron Hubbard

SELF ANALYSIS is the complete do-it-yourself handbook for personal improvement. It contains easy-to-learn techniques you can use daily.

- Think more clearly
- Feel good about yourself
- Overcome barriers to success
- Be more alive

Buy It, Read It, Use It. Because if you're not moving ahead... you're falling behind.

Order Today!

A Work Of BART!

Discover what a moving experience a true work of BART can be the next time you step out for an evening's fun.

Civic Center Station: Orpheum Theatre, Opera House, Performing Arts Center, Powell Street Station: Curran Theatre, A.C.T. Theatre, Golden Gate Theatre, Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown, Embarcadero
Station: Restaurants and Shops, 19th Street Station: Paramount Theatre, Oakland City Center: Jack London Square, Rockridge
Station: Restaurants and Shops, Concord: Concord Pavilion, Coliseum: Sports Events, Berkeley: Berkeley Repertory Theatre, University of California, Restaurant and Theatres, Walnut Creek Station: Civic Arts Theatre

And remember, there's always plenty of free parking at most BART stations evenings and weekends.

NATIONAL CORPORATE THEATRE FUND

The National Corporate Theatre Fund seeks to generate support from corporations of national significance for ten theatres of national significance. As a member of this organization, the American Conservatory Theatre gratefully acknowledges the support of the following major contributors to the National Corporate Theatre Fund:

ABT Foundation
Alcoa Foundation
American Broadcasting Companies, Inc.
American Can Company Foundation
American Express Foundation
Arthur Andersen & Co.
Ashland Oil Foundation
Bausch, Inc.
Brown-Forman Corporation
CBS, Inc.
Colgate-Palmolive Co.
Container Corporation of America
DPS Sorland Worldwide, Inc.
Exxon Corporation
GTE Foundation
General Electric Foundation
General Foods Foundation
Guth + Western Foundation
H.J. Heinz Company Foundation
John W. Hill
Hill & Knowlton Foundation
International Business Machines Corporation
Danny Kaye & Sylvia Fine Foundation
Klein Foundation
Lone Star Industries, Inc.
McGraw Hill Foundation
Merrill Lynch & Co. Foundation, Inc.
Metropolitan Life Foundation
Mudd Foundation
Mosbacher Foundation, Inc.
NL Industries Foundation
Nabisco Brands, Inc.
Newsweek
New York Life Foundation
New York Times Company Foundation
The New Yorker
Ogilvy & Mather Advertising
Piper Foundation
Philip Morris Incorporated
Price Waterhouse & Co.
RCA
Satchi & Satchi DFS Compton
Sterling Drug, Foundation
Subaru of America Foundation
J. Walter Thompson U.S.A., Inc.
Time, Inc.
Union Carbide Corporation
XRox Foundation

CORPORATE MATCHING GIFTS

The following corporations have generously match gifts made to A.C.T. by their employees in the past year, thus doubling the impact of many individual contributions. A.C.T. extends its gratitude to these companies and invites all of their employees to join in supporting live theatre in San Francisco.

Alexander & Baldwin, Inc.
ABT Foundation
BankAmerica Foundation
Carter Hawley Hale Stores
Chevron U.S.A.
CPC North America
Del Monte Corporation
Equitable Life Assurance Society
Exxon Corporation
Federated Department Stores
Fireman's Fund Insurance Company
Heublein Foundation, Inc.
IBM Corporation
International Data Corporation
International Life Insurance Foundation
J. R. Reynolds Industries
R.H. Macy & Co.
Security Pacific Foundation
Southern Pacific Transportation Company
Tandy Corporation
Time Warner
Transamerica Corporation
United Technologies

SPECIAL THANKS

Arthur Andersen & Co.
Four Seasons Clift Hotel
Hoagland Flowers
La Rosa Formal Wear
Pettit & Martin

Music for Futhers recorded in Paris at Casino de Paris and in Santa Monica at Duck Productions. The composer wishes to thank A.C.T., Inc.

This theatre operates under an agreement between the League of Resident Theatres and Actors' Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers in the United States.

If you carry a beeper, watch, or calculator with alarm, please make sure that it is set to the "OFF" position while you are in the theatre to prevent any interruption in the performance.

Cover photographs by Larry Merkle (End of the World With Symposium on Violence) and Ann Bergeron (Golden Boy). Cover art (Fathers) by Alden Elizabeth Fletcher.
NATIONAL CORPORATE THEATRE FUND

The National Corporate Theatre Fund seeks to generate support from corporations of national significance for ten theatres of national significance. As a member of this organization, the American Conservatory Theatre gratefully acknowledges the support of the following major contributors to the National Corporate Theatre Fund:

ARBT Foundation
Alcoa Foundation
American Broadcasting Companies, Inc.
American Can Company Foundation
American Express Foundation
Arthur Andersen & Co.
Ashland Oil Foundation
Batus, Inc.
Brown-Forman Corporation
CBS, Inc.
Colgate-Palmolive Co.
Container Corporation of America
DFS Dorland Worldwide, Inc.
Exxon Corporation
GTE Foundation
General Electric Foundation
General Foods Foundation
Gulf + Western Foundation
H.J. Heinz Company Foundation
John W. Hill
Hill & Knowlton Foundation
International Business Machines
Corporation
Danny Kaye & Sylvia Fine Foundation
Klein Foundation
Lone Star Industries, Inc.
McGraw Hill Foundation
Merrill Lynch & Co. Foundation, Inc.
Metropolitan Life Foundation
Mitsubishi Foundation
Mossbacher Foundation, Inc.
NI Industries Foundation
Nabisco Brands, Inc.
Newsmakers
New York Life Foundation
New York Times Company Foundation
The New Yorker
Ogilvy & Mather Advertising
Pfizer Foundation
Philip Morris Incorporated
Price Waterhouse & Co.
RCA
Stalchi & Stalchi DFS Compton
Sterling Drug, Foundation
Subaru of America Foundation
Walter Thompson U.S.A., Inc.
Time, Inc.
Union Carbide Corporation
Xerox Foundation

CORPORATE MATCHING GIFTS

The following corporations have generously matched gifts made to A.C.T. by their employees in the past year, thus doubling the impact of many individual contributions.
A.C.T. extends its gratitude to these companies and invites all of their employees to join in supporting live theatre in San Francisco.

Alexander & Baldwin, Inc.
ABRT Foundation
BankAmerica Foundation
Carter Hawley Hale Stores
Chevron U.S.A
CPC North America
Del Monte Corporation
Equitable Life Assurance Society
Exxon Corporation
Federated Department Stores
Firesman's Fund Insurance Company
Heublein Foundation, Inc.
IBM Corporation
International Data Corporation
Mutual Benefit Life Charitable Trust
Names in the News
R.J. Reynolds Industries
R.H. Macy & Co.
Security Pacific Foundation
Southern Pacific Transportation Company
Tandy Corporation
Times Mirror
Transamerica Corporation
United Technologies

SPECIAL THANKS

Arthur Andersen & Co.
Four Seasons Cliff Hotel
Hogwash Flowers
La Rosa Formal Wear
Pettit & Martin
Music for Fathom recorded in Paris at Casino de Paris and in Santa Monica at Puck Productions. The composer wishes to thank Casino, Inc.

This theatre operates under an agreement between the League of Resident Theatres and Actors’ Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers in the United States.

If you carry a beeper, watch, or calculator with alarm, please make sure that it is set to the "OFF" position while you are in the theatre to prevent any interruption in the performance.

Cover photographs by Larry Merkle (End of the World With Symposium of Violins) and Ann Bergeron (Goldyn Boy). Cover art (faithful) by Alden Elizabeth Fletcher.
GEARY THEATRE FIRE EXITS

ORCHESTRA

BALCONY

GALLERY

WELL, THE GLENLIVET Scotch whisky does cost around $20.00. Which some say is a small price to pay for a Scotch which has been made in the same unique way since 1747. A 15-year-old single malt Scotch with a smoothness and unique character that is unsurpassed to this day. All of which could explain why people are so strangely possessive about The Glenlivet. Which is a pity. You might just have to buy a bottle of your own.

THE GLENLIVET: JUST SLIGHTLY OUT OF REACH.
WILL THE GLENLIVET Scotch whisky does cost around $20.00. Which some say is a small price to pay for a Scotch which has been made in the same unique way since 1747. A 12-year-old single malt Scotch with a smoothness and unique character that is unsurpassed to this day. All of which could explain why people are so strangely possessive about The Glenlivet. Which is a pity. You might just have to buy a bottle of your own.

THE GLENLIVET: JUST SLIGHTLY OUT OF REACH.
S T E P H E N Sondheim was not talking to the news media. No interviews. No press conference. No prepared statement. Nothing!

The young man calling from Paris couldn’t believe it. Was Mr. Sondheim aware that he represented an internationally-known periodical? And that his readers were eager to know more about the Pulitzer Prize-winning composer?

Charlene Baldridge, national media representative for San Diego’s Old Globe Theatre, listened carefully to the journalist’s pleas. When he paused to think of a new gambit, she explained the circumstances.

Mr. Sondheim regretted not being able to talk, she assured her caller. His schedule made it absolutely impossible. The world premiere production of his new musical, Into the Woods, was due to open within a few days (December 4, 1986) at the Old Globe. Mr. Sondheim and author-director James Lapine were constantly making changes, and time was running out.

She added, in response to another question, that chances for an interview later on, after the show opened, were no better. Rewriting and polishing would very likely continue throughout the entire run of the show.

When the young man started to repeat his arguments, Baldridge suggested an alternative. Mr. Sondheim had once stated that his music represented him, and she did have an advance copy of the program whose names are not necessarily familiar to the general public but without whom the world of entertainment could not function.

In providing for your financial security, continuity in the management of assets is of utmost importance.

For over 50 years, Trust Services of America has been serving as professional trustee and asset manager with a unique spirit of competence and responsiveness.

Our commitment is reflected in the remarkable growth we have experienced; we currently manage over $8 billion in trust and investment assets.

Additionally, our performance record has been consistently within the upper tier when ranked with today’s most respected money managers.

And, in recognition that our future rests upon our ability to provide real value to our clients, we remain dedicated to making service our highest priority.

You may establish a relationship with TSA through the creation of a formal trust or through a simple advisory agreement—either way, it will mark the beginning of a lasting and productive relationship. For more information call TOLL FREE, today 800 221-471.
THE PRACTITIONERS

Old Globe
Media Representative
Charlene Baldridge

by William E. Fark

Another in a series of conversations with men and women in the performing arts — performers, executives, offstage "workers" — aware that he represented an internationally-known periodical? And that his readers were eager to know more about the Pulitzer Prize-winning composer?

Charlene Baldridge, national media representative for San Diego's Old Globe Theatre, listened carefully to the journalist's plea. When he paused to think of a new gambit, she explained the circumstances.

Mr. Sondheim regretted not being able to talk, she assured her caller. His schedule made it absolutely impossible. The world premiere production of his new musical, Into the Woods, was due to open within a few days (December 4, 1986) at the Old Globe. Mr. Sondheim and author-director James Lapine were constantly making changes, and time was running out.

She added, in response to another question, that chances for an interview later on, after the show opened, were no better. Rewriting and polishing would very likely continue throughout the entire run of the show. When the young man started to repeat his arguments, Baldridge suggested an alternative. Mr. Sondheim had once stated that his music represented him, and she did have an advance copy of the program.

STEPHEN Sondheim was not talking to the news media. No interviews. No press conference. No prepared statement. Nothing!

The young man calling from Paris couldn't believe it. Was Mr. Sondheim... with a listing of the musical numbers. Perhaps that, with a brief description of each song might help. Her promise to send the material by cable was sufficient to end the conversation on an acceptably positive note.

"That happened every day for three months," Baldridge said. "I had calls from all over, people wanting to interview Stephen Sondheim. Since they couldn't get to him in New York, they apparently thought it would be easier out here. He was more in demand than anyone else we've had in residence. And since he wasn't seeing or talking to anyone, the most frustrating. I couldn't do anything except say no to everyone."

Otherwise, Baldridge is never negative in representing the Simon Edison Centre for the Performing Arts: Old Globe Theatre, Cassius Carter Centre Stage and Lowell Davies Festival Theatre. Cooperating with (and in this instance, stalling) media representatives is only a part of the job, which she says she "invented."

"Not by myself," she explained. "Tom Hall [Old Globe managing director] and Joe Kobryner [its marketing and operations director] had the original idea. But I'm responsible for developing the position."

Before Baldridge, the theatre center's promotion and publicity were handled at the national level by an East Coast agency. But media interest grew as Old Globe's involvement in theatre expanded beyond its home town.

"We recognized the need for an on-the-spot representative," Kobryner said. "And Charlene was the obvious choice. I had asked her to come here originally as public relations assistant. We wanted another writer and I knew her work from the opera and as a contributor to Performing Arts. Within a few months, Charlene was doing more than we asked, and looking for additional assignments.

"Charlene has endless energy and enthusiasm. And initiative! Since the position didn't exist before, she felt she had to prove to Old Globe and to herself that a national media representative was indeed necessary. She has proved it beyond everyone's expectations."

Her official title, "Publications and National Media Director," does not indicate the scope of Baldridge's position. The first part is easy; she writes and edits The Herald, Old Globe's quarterly newsletter, and writes, edits and arranges for publication of the theatre programs. Directing media relations on a national scale is more involved. And personal. Arranging for out-of-town writers to see Old Globe shows and interview artists is routine procedure. She is also often involved in booking hotel accommodations, confirming transportation details, and getting the visitors tickets for other San Diego theatres.

"I balk at walking dogs," she said. "But I'm available for just about anything else."

Baldridge bases national media programs on the annual media calendar which she calls "my basic tool. Although the shows are different each season, production dates do not vary by more than a day or two from year to year. So I have something firm to work from."

When Old Globe artistic director Jack O'Brien decides on a show, Baldridge sets up a work file for it, sometimes months or a year in advance.

"I'm working now on a play that we won't be doing till 1989," Baldridge continues. "If a show has been done elsewhere, such as August Wilson's for Turner's Come and Gone, which played at Old Globe in January of this year and had been produced at Yale Repertory, I try to get photos, color slides, clippings, a bio of the playwright. Anything I can use to start my own background file."

Once a season is confirmed, Baldridge sends out general releases in a regular sequence: announcements of the plays and the directors and nearer to performance dates, the performers. She also notifies writers who might have an interest in a particular show.

She sends reminders too about other projects which relate to Old Globe. The TV version of I Never Sang For My Father, to be broadcast in June, had triple interest. Jack O'Brien directed it for American Playhouse, and two of the stars are Old Globe alumni. Daniel J. Travanti played in The Taming of the Shrew and Hamlet in the 1977 San Diego National Shakespeare Festival. Harold Gould was in The Skin of Our Teeth, which O'Brien directed on the Old Globe stage and televised live for PBS. Co-star Dorothy McGuire represents another local, but not Old Globe, association. She co-founded the La Jolla Playhouse.

Another advance project was preparing for Neil Simon's residency in connection with the world premiere of his Rumors at the Old Globe. Baldridge was accepting interview requests in February, although the play doesn't open till September.

An important part of her job is her annual trip to New York, where she meets with critics, writers and editors, bringing them up-to-date on Old Globe activities. Her most recent visit was in connection with a listing of the musical numbers. Perhaps that, with a brief description of each song might help. Her promise to send the material by cable was sufficient to end the conversation on an acceptably positive note.

Jack O'Brien's 1983 production of The Skin of Our Teeth, televised nationally from the Old Globe, included in its cast, from the left, Monique Fouler, Sada Thompson, Jeffrey Combs, Sean Sullivan (dinosaur) and Harold Gould.

“THat happened every day for three months,” Baldridge said. “I had calls from all over, people wanting to interview Stephen Sondheim. Since they couldn’t get to him in New York, they apparently thought it would be easier out here. He Theatre, Cassius Carter Centre Stage and Lowell Davies Festival Theatre. Cooperating with (and in this instance, stalling) media representatives is only a part of the job, which she says she “invented.”

“Not by myself,” she explained. “Tom Hall [Old Globe managing director] and Joe Kobryner [its marketing and operations director] had the original idea. But I’m responsible for developing the position.”

Before Baldridge, the theatre center’s promotion and publicity were handled at the national level by an East Coast agency. But media interest grew as Old Globe’s involvement in theatre expanded beyond its home town.

“We recognized the need for an on-the-spot representative,” Kobryner said. “And Charlene was the obvious choice. I had asked her to come here originally as public relations assistant. We wanted another writer and I knew her work from the opera and as a contributor to Performing Arts. Within a few months, Charlene was doing more than we asked, and looking for additional assignments.

“Charlene has endless energy and enthusiasm. And initiative! Since the position didn’t exist before, she felt she had to prove to Old Globe and to herself that a national media representative was indeed necessary. She has proved it beyond everyone’s expectations.”

Her official title, “Publications and National Media Director,” does not indicate the scope of Baldridge’s position. The first part is easy: she writes and edits The Herald, Old Globe’s quarterly newsletter, and writes, edits and arranges for publication of the theatre programs.

Directing media relations on a national scale is more involved. And personal. Arranging for out-of-town writers to see Old Globe shows and interview artists is routine procedure. She is also often involved in booking hotel accommodations, confirming transportation details, and getting the visitors tickets for other San Diego theatres.

“I talk at walking dogs,” she said. “But I’m available for just about anything else.”

Baldridge bases national media programs on the annual media calendar which she calls “my basic tool. Although the shows are different each season, production dates do not vary by more than a day or two from year to year. So I have something firm to work from.”

When Old Globe artistic director Jack O’Brien decides on a show, Baldridge sets up a work file for it, sometimes months or a year in advance.

“I’m working now on a play that we won’t be doing till 1983.” Baldridge continues. “If a show has been done elsewhere, such as August Wilson’s for Turner’s Come and Gone, which played at Old Globe in January of this year and had been produced at Yale Repertory, I try to get photos, color slides, clippings, a bio of the playwrights. Anything I can use to start my own background files.”

Once a season is confirmed, Baldridge sends out general releases in a regular sequence: announcements of the plays and the directors and nearer to performance dates, the performers. She also notifies writers who might have an interest in a particular show.

She sends reminders too about other projects which relate to Old Globe. The TV version of I Never Sang for My Father, to be broadcast in June, had triple interest. Jack O’Brien directed it for American Playhouse, and two of the stars are Old Globe alumni. Daniel J. Travanti played in The Taming of the Shrew and Hamlet in the 1977 San Diego National Shakespeare Festival. Harold Gould was in The Skin of Our Teeth, which O’Brien directed on the Old Globe stage and televised live for PBS. Co-star Dorothy McGuire represents another local, but not Old Globe, association. She co-founded the La Jolla Playhouse.

Another advance project was preparing for Neil Simon’s residency in connection with the world premiere of his Rumors at the Old Globe. Baldridge was accepting interview requests in February, although the play doesn’t open till September.

An important part of her job is her annual trip to New York, where she meets with critics, writers and editors, bringing them up-to-date on Old Globe activities. Her most recent visit was in connection with the Broadway opening of Into the Woods. The Josh Ellis Agency handled media relations, but Baldridge was on hand for information about the show’s history.

“Her was very much in touch,” Adrian Brian-Brown of the agency said. “Charlene gave us every assistance in promoting the show, to make sure of its smooth transfer to New York City.”

On that trip, which was typical, Baldridge met 15 writers, critics and editors for lunch or dinner. She had short visits with as many others, and telephone conversations with perhaps twice that number. She contacts media reps even when she is on vacation. During a recent visit to Chicago, for her high school reunion, she met with writers from the city’s major publications.

“During my journeys I’m also a spokesperson for Southern California theatre,” Baldridge said. “I’m frequently asked about companies in Los Angeles and Orange County, so I stay informed about what they’re doing. And there’s a growing curiosity about San Diego, which I can satisfy because I see the shows at La Jolla Playhouse, San Diego Rep and Gaslamp Quarter Theatre.”

Baldridge reads extensively: five daily newspapers and a dozen periodicals. She copies items for her files, then routes the material to others at Old Globe. Acting as resource person for other departments is a task she has added to her duties. She reads plays the company has scheduled and writes synopses for use by the box office and education and marketing department.

“I feel that I’m finally fulfilling my potential in this job,” she said. “I didn’t realize that I’ve been preparing for it all my life.”

“I was very, very fortunate,” she recalled. “Even in those dark ages, my school had a gifted student program. We had an accelerated schedule, with emphasis on individual interests. Mine was in the arts, and I was doing college-level work in high school.”

Although Baldridge’s primary emphasis was on vocal training, she studied all phases of music and the visual arts as well.

Baldridge postponed a singing career in favor of marriage. And postponed it again when she was left a widow with three children. After a move West and retraining in the banking field, she remarried and subsequently returned to school to study music and writing.

This led to her giving up banking for the less secure but more challenging profession of freelance writer. As a volunteer, she worked on promotion for the San Diego Opera.

“When I came to San Diego, I knew my subject. I knew the area, and I knew Old Globe,” Baldridge said. “I grew up with the job. I had models for the publications but devised my own system for the rest.”

A system that works wonderfully well, according to those who are its beneficiaries.

---

Wood-Mode

Fine Custom Cabinetry

Wood-Mode offers only custom-built cabinetry, designed to meet the requirements of each client... perfectly.

- KB Associates
- Kitchen Representatives
- 1169 Chest Drive, Suite 1, Foster City, CA 94404
- 415-579-0412

CHINA STATION

The Difference between Good and Great

Lunch - Dinner - Banquets - Food to Go

11:30 AM to 1:00 AM Daily

Cocktail Lounge - Free Parking

In the Historic Southern Pacific Depot

700 University Avenue • Berkeley

415/548-7880
with the Broadway opening of Into the Woods. The Josh Ellis Agency handled media relations, but Baldridge was on hand for information about the show's history.

"She was very much in touch," Adrian Brian-Brown of the agency said. "Charlene gave us every assistance in promoting the show, to make sure of its smooth transfer to New York City.

On that trip, which was typical, Baldridge met 15 writers, critics and editors for lunch or dinner. She had short visits with as many others, and telephone conversations with perhaps twice that number. She contacts media reps even when she is on vacation. During a recent visit to Chicago, for her high school reunion, she met with writers from the city's major publications.

Mel Winkler and L. Scott Caldwell in August Wilson's Joe Turner's Come and Gone.

"During my journeys I'm also a spokesperson for Southern California theatre," Baldridge said. "I'm frequently asked about companies in Los Angeles and Orange County, so I stay informed about what they're doing. And there's a growing curiosity about San Diego, which I can satisfy because I see the shows at La Jolla Playhouse, San Diego Rep and Gaslamp Quarter Theatre."

Baldridge reads extensively: five daily newspapers and a dozen periodicals. She copies items for her files, then routes the material to others at Old Globe. Acting as resource person for other departments is a task she has added to her duties. She reads plays the company has scheduled and writes synopses for use by the box office and the education and marketing department.

"I feel that I'm finally fulfilling my potential in this job," she said. "I didn't realize that I've been preparing for it all my life."

That preparation began at New Trier High School in Winnetka, Illinois. "I was very, very fortunate," she recalled. "Even in those dark ages, my school had a gifted student program. We had an accelerated schedule, with emphasis on individual interests. Mine was in the arts, and I was doing college-level work in high school."

Although Baldridge's primary emphasis was on vocal training, she studied all phases of music and the visual arts as well.

Baldridge postponed a singing career in favor of marriage. And postponed it again when she was left a widow with three children. After a move West and retraining in the banking field, she remarried and subsequently returned to school to study music and writing.

This led to her giving up banking for the less secure but more challenging profession of freelance writer. As a volunteer, she worked on promotion for the San Diego Opera.

"When I came to San Diego, I knew my subject. I knew the area, and I knew Old Globe," Baldridge said. "I grew up with the job. I had models for the publications but devised my own system for the rest."

A system that works wonderfully well, according to those who are its beneficiaries.

William E. Farr, a former actor, singer and dancer, is a staff writer for the Times-Advocate in Escondido, California, and a frequent contributor to Performing Arts magazine.
when a clergyman backs up his alibi in the investigation of a second, willful theft he has perpetrated, the man is transformed to his former moral self. He starts a new life, prospers and raises unsatisfactorily for the benefit of the commonweal. He is hunted down, however (and here the nightmare really darkens), by a fanatical police inspector so determined to see the man prosecuted for his past indiscretion that he pursues him mercilessly to the death.

Kafka instinctively understood that the power good men have to bring about change within themselves and the bad world around them is despised by the unbending, unimaginative authoritarian state. Victor Hugo had the same idea, and quite a few other good ones, at least 50 years before Prague's prince of welt schmerz ever wrung his hands over a piece of paper. Thus it is that Hugo's 19th-century novel, Les Misérables, adapted into a stirring pop opera by many of the same folks who brought you Nicholas Nickleby, today seems to resonate simultaneously with the paranoia that is so familiar to us in our own time and the spirituality that suffused the greatest works of art of the Romantic era.

All this and entertainment, too! You needn't care a centime for high-toned literary conceits to enjoy Les Mis. This show's thrilling theatricality and driving pace are enough to rouse even the most TV-anesthetized rabble. A hit of historic proportions is about to break out on the Century City barricades — and just in time for the bicentennial of the French

Add Alaska to your Liszt.

When you take an S.S. Universe World Explorer Cruise of Alaska, you not only see more spectacular scenery, you hear more beautiful music. You'll visit more ports than on any other Alaskan cruise. Relax to the sounds of string quartets, chamber ensembles or a full dance orchestra every night. Learn about Alaskan art, history, folklore, geology and wildlife from experts on board you.

Best of all, our 14-day cruise fares begin as low as $8995 per person. Less than many 7-day cruises. If all this sounds good to you, see your travel agent and book your Alaskan cruise aboard the good ship S.S. Universe (Liberian Registry). For our 24-page, full-color 1988 brochure, please call us: (800) 854-3835.

Or write: World Explorer Cruises, 555 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, CA 94111.
CALIFORNIA Arts Preview
by Jeffrey Hirsch
Theatre

LE SHOW

Above: Randy Graff as Fantine in the Broadway production of Les Misérables. At the Shubert Theatre beginning May 21.

It’s the kind of nightmare that in our modernity we knowingly refer to as “Kafkaesque.” An honest man commits a single crime in order to feed his starving family and winds up in jail. He is caught attempting to escape and given an additional 19-year sentence. Released at last, he now wears comfortably the mantle of outlaw in which the guardians of society have unjustly cloaked him. But when a clergyman backs up his alibi in the investigation of a second, willful theft he has perpetrated, the man is transformed to his former moral self. He starts a new life, prospers and strives unselfishly for the benefit of the commonweal. He is hunted down, however (and here the nightmare really darkens), by a fanatical police inspector so determined to see the man prosecuted for his past indiscretion that he pursues him mercilessly to the death.

Kafka instinctively understood that the power good men have to bring about change within themselves and the bad world around them is despised by the unbending, unimaginative authoritarian state. Victor Hugo had the same idea, and quite a few other good ones, at least 50 years before Prague’s prince of welt- schmerz ever wrung his hands over a piece of paper. Thus it is that Hugo’s 19th-century novel, Les Misérables, adapted into a stirring pop opera by many of the same folks who brought you Nicholas Nickleby, today seems to resonate simultaneously with the paranoia that is so familiar to us in our own time and the spirituality that suffused the greatest works of art of the Romantic era.

All this and entertainment, too! You needn’t care a centime for high-toned literary conceits to enjoy Les Mis. This show’s thrilling theatricality and driving pace are enough to rouse even the most TV-anesthetized rabble. A hit of historic proportions is about to break out on the Century City barricades — and just in time for the bicentennial of the French

Add Alaska to your Liszt.

When you take an S.S. Universe World Explorer Cruise of Alaska, you not only see more spectacular scenery you hear more beautiful music. You’ll visit more ports than on any other Alaskan cruise. Relax to the sounds of string quartets, chamber ensembles or a full dance orchestra every night. Learn about Alaskan art, history, folklore, geology and wildlife, from experts on board with you. Best of all, our 14-day cruise fares begin as low as $6695 per person. Less than many 7-day cruises. If all this sounds good to you, see your travel agent and book your Alaskan cruise aboard the good ship S.S. Universe (Liberian Registry).
For our 24-page, full-color 1988 brochure, please call us: (800) 854-3835.
Or write: World Explorer Cruises, 555 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, CA 94111.

S.S. UNIVERSE WORLD EXPLORER CRUISES
A 14-day adventure for the mind, heart and soul.
Revolution! Previews begin May 21, Shubert Theatre, 2020 Avenue of the Stars, (800) 233-3123, Los Angeles. (See related story on page 10 of this issue of Performing Arts).

THE GLOBE'S EXPANDING UNIVERSE
California has long looked south to San Diego's Old Globe Theatre for fine and varied programming. The past year has seen a longer but equally curious glance being cast on the Globe from the easterly direction whither New York lies. The reason for the recent coast-to-coast surveillance is the impressive number of shows (three, for the record) that originated last year at the Globe and which will be seen on or around Broadway before the current season is over. A fourth show, Joe Turner's Come and Gone played in San Diego as the final stop on its regional theatre tryout tour immediately before opening on Broadway where it now seems likely to become the hit play of the season.

New play development appears lately to be on the mind of Jack O'Brien, the Globe's artistic director. And what O'Brien thinks merits the attention of his loyal and adventurous local audience is proving to be very much to the taste of folks back East. But then when you are utilizing the talents of writers like Stephen Sondheim, A.R. Gurney Jr. and Stephen Metcalfe, you have every reason to believe that the plays you produce will find life beyond Balboa Park.

Gurney and Metcalfe will again be represented at the Globe by new works bound to attract national attention (Show Me the Way to Go Home a family play, and White Linen, a musical, respectively) as the theatre's annual summerfest gets underway next month. And another writer who has enjoyed bi-coastal acclaim, Neil Simon, will be on hand to oversee the world premiere of his latest comedy, Promises, Promises. With the surefire hit success of the new, the Globe's proven formula for success, O'Brien has also chosen three Shakespeare plays for Festival '88, and an infrequently produced trio they are: Timon of Athens, Love's Labour's Lost, and Coriolanus. Rounding out this summer's playbook and undoubtedly chosen just for the fun of it is Jeeves Takes Charge, a stylish adaptation of P.G. Wodehouse stories that has already been seen in New York, thank you very much! Festival '88, June 2 through October 29, Old Globe Theatre, Balboa Park, (619) 239-2255, San Diego.

STAGE SHORTS
Orange County: South Coast Repertory concludes its current season with the June 10 through July 14 American premiere engagement of Golden Girls, a play that asks the question what makes women athletes run? (714) 997-2602, Los Angeles: Playing through June 19 at the Mark Taper Forum is The Piano Lesson, the latest installment in August Wilson's extraordinary chronicle of black life in America. (213) 410-1062... Kismet, the magic carpet musical, arrives in Pasadena at the Civic Auditorium under the auspices of the California Music Theatre, June 16 through 22... (818) 356-SHOW... Wisecracker Eugene Jerome grows up and becomes writer Neil Simon in Broadway Bound, the final play in the popular playwright's autobiographical trilogy, at the Ahmanson Theatre thru July 3. (213) 410-1062... Garson Kanin's classic cock-eyed comedy, Born Yesterday, will be revived at the Pasadena Playhouse, June 16 through July 17... (818) 356-SHOW, San Diego: The Rep's new season at the Lyceum Theatre opens May 18 with The Mystery of Irma Vep... Charles Ludlam's Victorian romp for (very busy) actors. (619) 235-8625... Gaslamp Quarter Theatre Company's production of Betrayal, the backwoods-told romance by Harold Pinter, plays May 11 through July 2... (619) 234-9583, Bay Area: Now and forever — or at least from May 23 to early July — Cats can be caught at the Golden Gate Theatre.

(415) 474-3800... South Pacific will be performed as the 75th annual Mountain Play, May 22 through June 26 in Mill Valley, (415) 383-0159... Summer arrives at the Paul Masson Mountain Winery in Saratoga on May 20 with the opening of the VITA Shakespeare Festival's 12th season. (408) 867-2395.

Dance
THE CORPS DE BALET OF SUMMER
Balletomanes — and others of us who enjoy watching lovely bodies in motion — can look forward to a few more exhibi-

Andrew Lloyd Webber's Cats will be at San Fran-sisco's Golden Gate Theatre beginning May 23. Rating workouts before slipping into the langurs of summer. Though the rising temperature out of doors offers a fine argument in favor of a hasty retreat into hammock or onto beach blanket, there remain a couple of compelling reasons to maintain relatively erect seated positions for at least another month or so. From such vantage points (and while still fully clothed, probably) may we best receive the National Ballet of Canada and the Paris Opera Ballet, both soon to arrive in Southern California to lift our seasonally slackened spirits.
Revolution! Previews begin May 21, Shubert Theatre, 2020 Avenue of the Stars, (800) 233-3123, Los Angeles. (See related story on page 10 of this issue of Performing Arts).

THE GLOBE'S EXPANDING UNIVERSE
California has long looked south to San Diego's Old Globe Theatre for fine and varied programming. The past year has seen a longer but equally curious glance being cast on the Globe from the easterly direction whither New York lies. The reason for the recent coast-to-coast surveillance is the impressive number of shows (three, for the record) that originated last year at the Globe and which will be seen on or around Broadway before the current season is over. A fourth show, Joe Turner's Come and Gone played in San Diego as the final stop on its regional theatre tour immediately before opening on Broadway where it now seems likely to become the hit play of the season.

New play development appears lately to be on the mind of Jack O'Brien, the Globe's artistic director. And what O'Brien thinks merits the attention of his loyal and adventurous local audience is proving to be very much to the taste of folks back East. But then when you are utilizing the talents of writers like Stephen Sondheim, A.R. Gurney Jr. and Stephen Metcalfe, you have every reason to believe that the plays you produce will find life beyond Balboa Park.

Gurney and Metcalfe will again be represented at the Globe by new works bound to attract national attention (Show Me the Way to Go Home a family play, and White Linen, a musical, respectively) as the theatre's annual summerfest gets under way next month. And another writer who has enjoyed bi-coastal acclaim, Neil Simon, will be on hand to oversee the world premiere of his latest comedy, Fools. Mold with the very new, the Globe's proven formula for success, O'Brien has also chosen three Shakespeare plays for Festival '88, and an infrequently produced trio they are: Timon of Athens, Love's Labour's Lost and Coriolanus. Rounding out this summer's playground and undeniably chosen just for the fun of it is Jeeves Takes Charge, a stylish adaptation of P.G. Wodehouse stories that has already been seen in New York, thank you very much! Festival '88, June 2 through October 29, Old Globe Theatre, Balboa Park, (619) 293-2255, San Diego.

STAGE SHORTS
Orange County: South Coast Repertory concludes its current season with the June 10 through July 14 American premiere engagement of Golden Girls, a play that asks the question what makes women athletes run? (714) 957-2602, Los Angeles: Playing through June 19 at the Margo Taper Forum is The Piano Lesson, the latest installment in August Wilson's extraordinary chronicle of black life in America. (213) 410-1062. . . Kismet, the magic carpet musical, arrives in Pasadena at the Civic Auditorium under the auspices of the California Music Theatre. June 16 through 22, (818) 356-SHOW . . . Wisecracker Eugene Morris Jerome grows up and becomes writer Neil Simon in Broadway Bound, the final play in the popular playwright's autobiographical trilogy, at the Ahmanson Theatre thru July 3. (213) 410-1062 . . . Garson Kanin's classic cock-eyed comedy, Born Yesterday, will be revived at the Pasadena Playhouse, June 16 through July 17, (818) 356-SHOW, San Diego: The Rep's new season at the Lyceum Theatre opens May 18 with The Mystery of Irma Vep, Charles Ludlam's Victorian romp for (very funny) actors. (619) 235-8025 . . . Gaslamp Quarter Theatre Company's production of Betrayal, the backwoods-told romance by Harold Pinter, plays May 11 through July 2. (619) 234-9583. Bay Area: Now and forever — or at least from May 23 into early July — Cats can be caught at the Golden Gate Theatre. (415) 474-3800 . . . South Pacific will be performed as the 75th annual Mountain Play, May 22 through June 26 in Mill Valley, (415) 383-0159 . . . Summer arrives at the Paul Masson Mountain Winery in Saratoga on May 20 with the opening of the VITA Shakespeare Festival's 12th season. (408) 867-2395.

Dance
THE CORPS DE BALET OF SUMMER
Balletomanes — and others of us who enjoy watching lovely bodies in motion — can look forward to a few more exhi-remarkable peripetia, Bruhn turned from his own roots in the traditional classical repertory and took the National Ballet, which was similarly grounded in tradition, fearlessly into the realm of the ultra-modern, commissioning dances from even the most uncompromising and controversial of contemporary iconoclasts. The result has been the development of a company of unusual versatility and strength.

Futurist on the programs to be danced on tour next month by the Royal Ballet are Balanchine's classic study of the melancholic, sanguine, phlegmatic and choleric humors, The Four Temperaments, and the full-length Onegin, a ballet by John Cranko based on the Pushkin verse novel with guest artist Fernando Bujones dancing the title role at some performances. The company's artistic associate Glen Tetley will be represented by the local premiere of his acclaimed Alice, set to music by David Del Tredici and recounting the perennially appealing tale of the little girl who travels through the looking glass into a wonderland where even over-anxious white rabbits and somnambulant dormice have the grace of ballet dancers. May 26 through 28, Civic Theatre, 202 C Street, (619) 234-5855, San Diego. May 30 through June 5, Pasadena Civic Auditorium, 300 E. Green Street, (213) 480-1062. Pasadena, June 7 through 12, Orange County Performing Arts Center, 600 Town Center Drive, (714) 556-ARTS, Costa Mesa.

Don't slip off to the pool yet: the Paris Opéra Ballet is coming to Orange County. The exclusive Southern California engagement of the 300-year-old troupe that owns the world's first performances of Giselle, Coppélia and La Sylphide will find the Parisians up to some rather newer tricks. Artistic director Rudolph Nureyev (yes, the same Rudi whom we recently saw dancing with the American Ballet Theatre) has staged a Cinderella certain to look right at home in proximity to the motion picture industry's central stronghold.

Hollywood, circa 1930, provides the setting for this treatment of the classic fairy tale as scored by Sergei Prokofiev. Prince Charming becomes a leading man in search of the starlet of his dreams and the girl's fairy godmother is a producer (to be danced locally by Nureyev) with the power to transform raw talent into Academy Award material. Groucho Marx, Judy Garland, King Kong, Fred Astaire and Charlie Chaplin all make cameos appearances before the clock strikes midnight when, just as in real-life LA, everybody scurries off to bed so as to look their best next day on the set. June 14 through 19, Orange County Performing Arts Center, 600 Town Center Drive, (714) 556-ARTS. Costa Mesa.

Music

BRIEFLY NOTED

Bay Area: Russian pianist Vladimir Feltsman appears with Herbert Blomstedt and the San Francisco Symphony during the orchestra's 80th annual Bee-remarkable peripeteia, Bruhn turned from his own roots in the traditional classical repertory and took the National Ballet, which was similarly grounded in tradition, fearlessly into the realm of the ultra-modern, commissioning dances from even the most uncompromising and controversial of contemporary iconoclasts. The result has been the development of a company of unusual versatility and strength.

Featuring on the programs to be danced on tour next month by the Royal Ballet are Balanchine's classic study of the melancholic, sanguine, phlegmatic and choleric humors, The Four Temperaments, and the full-length Onegin, a ballet by John Cranko based on the Pushkin verse novel with guest artist Fernando Bujones dancing the title role at some performances. The company's artistic associate Glen Tetley will be represented by the local premiere of his acclaimed Alice, set to music by David Del Tredici and recounting the perennially appealing tale of the little girl who travels through the looking glass into a wonderland where even over-anxious white rabbits and somnambulant dormice have the grace of ballet dancers. May 26 through 28, Civic Theatre, 282 C Street, (619)234-5885, San Diego. May 30 through June 5, Pasadena Civic Auditorium, 300 E. Green Street, (213)430-1062, Pasadena, June 7 through 12, Orange County Performing Arts Center, 600 Town Center Drive, (714)556-ARTS, Costa Mesa.

Don't slip off to the pool yet: the Paris Opéra Ballet is coming to Orange County. The exclusive Southern California engagement of the 300-year-old troupe that gave the world its first performances of Giselle, Coppélia and La Sylphide will find the Parisians up to some rather newer tricks. Artistic director Rudolph Nureyev (yes, the same Rudi whom we recently saw dancing with the American Ballet Theatre) has staged a Cinderella certain to look right at home in proximity to the motion picture industry's central stronghold.

Hollywood, circa 1930, provides the setting for this treatment of the classic fairy tale as scored by Sergei Prokofiev. Prince Charming becomes a leading man in search of the starlet of his dreams and the girl's fairy godmother is a producer (to be danced locally by Nureyev) with the power to transform raw talent into Academy Award material. Groucho Marx, Judy Garland, King Kong, Fred Astaire and Charlie Chaplin all make cameo appearances before the clock strikes midnight when, just as in real-life LA, everybody scurries off to bed so as to look their best next day on the set. June 14 through 19, Orange County Performing Arts Center, 600 Town Center Drive, (714)556-ARTS, Costa Mesa.
LAVISH REVIEWS featuring Female Impersonators

Join us for an evening of fun and entertainment world renowned Finocchio’s

THE SAN FRANCISCO MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

RENTAL GALLERY AT FORT MASON CENTER

BLDG. A FORT MASON, S.E. CA.
TUESDAY THROUGH SATURDAY 11:00 TO 5:30
415-477

Advertising in Performing Arts Gets Results

For information about advertising in the program magazines of the Performing Arts Network, please call (415) 673-3370

The ultimate elegance in women’s fashions designed for you alone
Herschelle Couturier
By Appointment Only
550 S. BROADWAY SAN FRANCISCO 932-9102

thoven Festival, June 12 to July 2. (415) 431-5400. . . . The sublime cabaret artistry of Weslia Whitfield can be enjoyed May 24 through June 19 at the Plush Room. (415) 888-6880 . . . The Gondoliers, Gilbert and Sullivan’s sunny Venetian sojourn, punts into the Presentation Theater June 18 flying the flag of the Lighter. (415) 752-7775 . . . Ray Charles, Jean-Pierre Rampal and Rosemary Clooney are only three of the many artists who appear in Saratoga on the Paul Masson Summer Series, June 2 through September 25. (408) 791-5811. Los Angeles: The Playboy Jazz Festival celebrates its 10th birthday at the Hollywood Bowl June 18 and 19 with eclectic programs that will feature Carmen McCrae, King Sunny Ade, Flora Purim, Bobby Hutcherson and many others. (213) 469-9040. Orange County: The Orange County Performing Arts Center offers a Salute to Benny Goodman with Helen Forrest and Joe Williams on June 5. (714) 566-ARTS. San

SAN FRANCISCO

Restaurant Guide

Our Curtain Rises at 5:30

At Sutter Garden, dinner begins at 5:30. We’re walking distance to your favorite theater. Mention this ad for 20% discount between 5:30 - 7:30pm.

CALIFORNIA CAFE BAR & GRILL, Broadway at The Embarcadero (415) 445-4540. L 11:45-2 30 Mon-Fri, D 5-10. This is the best California American cuisine featuring mesquite grill. Southernwestern + Italian entrees. Parking reserv. As. V. MC.

GAYLORD INDIA, One Embarcadero Center (415) 987-7775. Chinamedeli Square (415) 771-8822. Standard Shopping Center, Palo Alto (405) 982-9794. L 11:45-1:45, D 5:30-10 Daily. Quite simply, the ultimate in Indian Thanduri cuisine. As. DC. V. MC.

HARRIS BAR AND AMERICAN GRILL, 500 Van Ness (415) 86-HARRYS, L 11:30-3 Mon-Fri, D 5-10. Sun-Fri, till 12 Fri. Nuovo cucina of Northern Italy. Special pre-theater dinner available. Full bar. V. MC.

Union Square
Sutter & Powell Streets
Validated Parking (415) 989-0660

A Sweet Finale
At the S. Holmes Cocktail Lounge

- Elegant Desserts
- Live Piano Music
- Spectacular View
- Delicious Cappuccino
- Luxurious Interiors
- Unquestionable View

KEY
B Breakfast L Lunch D Dinner BR Brunch
CREDIT CARDS
AE American Express MC MasterCard
DC Diners Club DS Discover
CB Carte Blanche V Visa
SAN FRANCISCO
Restaurant Guide

Our Curtain Rises at 5:30
At Sutter Garden, dinner begins at 5:30pm. We’re walking distance to your favorite theater. Mention this ad for 20% discount between 5:30 - 7:30pm.

Sutter Garden
At the Orchid Hotel
562 Sutter btw, Powell and Mason
(415) 433-4434

CHINA STATION, 200 University Ave., Berkeley, CA (415/546-7800). L 12-3 Daily, Cocktails till 2. Extensive Cantonese and Sichuan menu featuring fresh seafood, located in the historic So. Pacific railroad depot. Full bar. Free parking. All DS V MC.

Advertise in Performing Arts Gets Results
For information about advertising in the program magazines of the Performing Arts Network, please call (415) 673-3370.

THE SAN FRANCISCO MUSEUM OF MODERN ART
RENTAL GALLERY
AT FORT MASON CENTER
BLDG. A FORT MASON, S.E. CA. TUESDAY THROUGH SATURDAY 11:30 TO 5:30 445-4477

SECTION 8.00

LAVISH REVIEWS Featuring Female Impersonators

Join us for an evening of fun and entertainment
Adolescent, 300.00 No Minimum
Children: Mon. & Wed. 5 pm to 1 am.

The ultimate elegance in women's fashion designed for you alone.

HERSCHELLE COUTURIER
By Appointment Only
1300 BROADWAY SAN FRANCISCO 92138

LES CÉLEBRITES at HOTEL NIKKO. 222 Mason Street, 1 block west of Union Square (415) 994-1111 Ext. 100. B 6:30-11, L 12-3, D 6-8 daily. Located above street level, Les Célébrités offers a strikingly different dining experience in exciting city-French cuisine. Enjoy the eclectic décor with its contrasting textures and colors. A far-from-ordinary restaurant in San Francisco's hottest downtown hotel. 2 Hour complimentary valet parking. AE CB DC V MC.

PIERRE at MERIDIAN, 50 Third St. (415) 998-6600. L 11:30-2 Mon-Fri, D 6-10 Mon-Sat. Contemporary French cuisine, impeccably prepared & elegantly served, luxuriously appointed, wide choice of tables, nicely diverse menu that changes with the seasons, nightly fixed-priced tasting menu & an exceptional wine list combine to make a meal at Meridian's critically acclaimed Pierre restaurant the dejeuner possible approximation of a 3-star dining experience in France. Reservations recommended. Complimentary valet parking. AE DC CB V MC.

SUTTER GARDEN, 562 Sutter St., Brown Powell & Mason (415) 433-4344. B 9-11, L 11:30-2, D 5-9 Daily. Contemporary continental cuisine. Specialties include a fresh catch of the day, pasta, salads & sumptuous desserts. AE DC CB V MC DIS.

THE PORTMAN GRILL at THE PORTMAN HOTEL at the corner of Post & Mason, 1 block west of Union Square (415) 777-6600. B/L/D 7 AM-11 PM. D from 5:30. In a dramatic Tracery atrium setting with fountains, sculpture, fireplaces & grand piano. The Portman Grill is San Francisco's newest dining sensation. Exceptional service & dining in the tradition of the world's finest grills, with an emphasis on California cuisine. An ideal place for dining & relaxing before or after the theater. Reservations recommended. Valet parking. AE DC CB V MC DIS.

TRADER VIC'S, 20 Cosmo Pk. (415) 778-2222. L/D 11:30-1:30 Mon-Fri, D 5-10, 12-2, 5-10 Mon-Sat. AE DC CB V MC DIS.

WHITE ELEPHANT, HOLIDAY INN UNION SQUARE, 480 Sutter St. (415) 788-6000. B 6-10, L/D 11:30-2:30 Mon-Sat, D 6-10, Salads, steaks & fresh seafood. Special menu for early diners. Full bar & wine list. AE DC CB V MC DIS.
OVERTURES
In the Performing Arts Center Garage
Cosmetics/Baras
Sundries/Gifts/Candles
Assorted Chilled Wines
OPEN DAILY
370 Grove Street / San Francisco
(415) 861-2212

LES CELEBRITES at HOTEL NIKKO. 222 Mason Street. 1 block west of Union Square (415) 394-1111 Ext. 100. 8:30-11, L 11:30-2, D 6-11 daily. Located above street level. Les Celebrités offers a strikingly different dining experience in exciting city-French cuisine. Enjoy the eclectic décor with its contrasting textures and colors. A far-from-ordinary restaurant in San Francisco's newest downtown hotel. 2 Hour complimentary valet parking. AE DC CB V MC.

MAX'S OPERA CAFE. 401 Van Ness (415) 777-7731. L-D 11:30 AM-11 PM Mon-Thurs, till 1 Fri-Sat, till 2 Sun; International deli specializing in salads, sandwiches & barbecue, fresh fish & desserts. Entertainment by singing waiters. AE DC CB V MC.

PIERRE at MENDOZA. 50 Third St. (415) 989-6600. L 11:30-2 Mon-Fri, D 6-11 Mon-Sat. Contemporary French cuisine, impeccably prepared in elegantly served, luxuriously appointed, widely spaced tables, richly diverse menus that change with the seasons, nightly fixed-priced tasting menus & an exceptional wine list combine to make a meal at the Mendosa's critically acclaimed Pierre restaurant the dessert possible approximation of a 3-star dining experience in Paris. Reservations recommended. Complimentary valet parking. AE DC CB V MC.

SUFFER GARDEN. 562 Sutter St. (415) 433-4434. B 9:30, L 11:30-2, D 5:30-30 Daily. Contemporary continental cuisine. Specialties include a fresh catch of the day, pastas, salads & sumptuous desserts. AE DC CB V MC.

THE PORTMAN GRILL, THE PORTMAN HOTEL, at the corner of Post & Mason. 1 block west of Union Square (415) 777-6600. B-L D 7 AM-11 PM. D from 5:30. In a dramatic T-ray atrium setting with fountains, sculpture, fireplaces & grand piano, the Portman Grill is San Francisco's newest dining sensation. Exceptional service & dining in the tradition of the world's finest grills, with an emphasis on California cuisine. An ideal place for dining & relaxing before or after the theatre. Reservations recommended. Valet parking AE DC CB V MC.

WHITE ELEPHANT, HOLIDAY INN UNION SQUARE. 480 Sutter St. (415) 989-8660. B 5-6, L 10:30, M 12-2:30 Mon-Sat, D 6-11 nightly. Salads, steak & fresh seafood. Special menus for early dining. Full bar & wine list. Sherlock Holmes Cocktail Lounge. 4-3:00 nightly with live entertainment Tues-Sat. All DC CB V MC.

TRADER VIC'S
An International Experience
World Class Drinks and Pampus
Seaford and Meats
from our Chinese Owner
Cocktails, Lunch, Dinner & Banquets
San Francisco 415 - 776-2232
Also in Emerging 415 - 653-2400

Simply elegant dining.

One Embarcadero Center 415 397-1717
One Embarcadero Center 415 771-8822
Standard Shopping Center 415 238-8781

GAYLORD
m/sa restaurant

OWN A BOTTLE.
It's worth the price to have at least one thing in your life that's simply perfect.
Tanqueray. A singular experience.

Imported English Gin. 94.6 Proof. 100% Grain Neutral Spirits. © 1998 Schieffelin & Somerset, New York, N.Y.
"Captain, we forgot the Colombian Coffee."

The richest coffee in the world.